CALL FOR PAPERS

FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES AND ANNOUNCEMENTS
Sandell Grant Program. The Center for Retirement Research at Boston College is accepting applications for the 2013 Steven H. Sandell Grant Program. The Sandell Grants provide the opportunity for junior scholars, or senior scholars entering a new field, to pursue projects on retirement income and disability insurance. The program is open to scholars in all academic disciplines. Application deadline: January 31, 2013.

Diffusion of Medical Technology and Effects on Outcomes and Expenditures (U01). This FOA solicits U01 applications for economic research designed to explain the diffusion of health technologies both to understand trends in health outcomes and to improve the process leading from scientific advances to health benefits. Application deadline: February 28, 2013.

Revised NSF Grant Proposal Guide (GPG) 13-1. Effective January 14, 2013, in FastLane, the Project Summary section will now have three distinct and separate text boxes for the Overview, Intellectual Merit and Broader Impact sections. Please feel free to contact your GCO with any other questions. For FAQ regarding changes to the GPG, please visit http://www.nsf.gov/bfa/dias/policy/papp/papp13_1/pappgfastlane_faqs.jsp.
Human Services Policy Analyst, Mathematica Policy Research. Mathematica is inviting research analysts to join us in conducting significant studies in human services. As a human services analyst, you would join our staff of research professionals, which includes doctoral level researchers in the fields of public policy, social sciences, and economics, as well as other master's-level analysts. Master's degree in public policy, public health, economics, statistics, or a related field, or equivalent experience Open until filled.

Managing Editor, Population and Development Review, Population Council. The position serves as Managing Editor for Population and Development Review (PDR). PDR is a peer-reviewed journal published quarterly that seeks to advance knowledge of the relationships between population and social, economic, and environmental change, and to provide a forum for discussion of related issues of public policy. Open until filled.

Two (2 positions), Open Rank Professors, tenure-track, University at Albany. The Center for Social and Demographic Analysis (CSDA) of the University at Albany (SUNY) announces a search for two demographers. Both lines are tenure track with discipline and rank open. Applicants should complement the existing strengths of CSDA in migration, segregation, spatial demography, biodemography, population and environment, reproduction, aging and health. Candidates are expected to have well developed funded or fundable research agendas, and to participate in CSDA programs and governance. The lines (and tenure) will be housed in the department of the candidate’s choice, and carry the standard teaching and service load for that department. Application deadline: January 20, 2013.

Postdoctoral Fellowship, Center for Research on Race and Ethnicity in Society (CRRES), Indiana University. The CRRES fellowship program aims to create a legacy of qualified scholars who will be positioned to address the broad issue of race and ethnicity through a multidisciplinary lens. Appropriate areas of specialization include: (1) immigration, immigrant politics, and/or immigrant experiences; (2) race in electoral politics; (3) race, ethnicity, and religion; (4) health disparities, health policy, and health economics; (5) racial attitudes; (6) U.S. minorities and social movements; and (7) social inequality. Application deadline: January 30, 2013.

Social Scientist, at the Office of Planning, Research and Evaluation at the Administration for Children and Families. The position will support federal staff and carry out responsibilities related to monitoring and supporting research and evaluation activities related to human service programs. A master’s degree or three or more years’ experience in a related field or Doctorate (Ph.D.) in Child Development, Family Studies, Developmental Psychology, Public Policy, Social Work or related fields. Experience with research, program evaluation, and knowledge of policies and programs affecting children and families served by ACF programs. Application deadline: January 31, 2013.

Junior Professor in Sociology of Education and Family, University of Mannheim. The School of Social Sciences at the University of Mannheim invites applications for a Junior Professor in Sociology of Education and Family (W1) to be filled as soon as possible. We seek a scholar with an innovative research agenda and internationally visible publications in the field of sociology of family and/or education. The successful candidate should be committed to outstanding teaching in both fields and related courses offered in the B.A. and M.A./Ph.D. programs in sociology. Contributions to the research activities at the Mannheim Centre for European Social Research (MZES) are expected. Application deadline: January 31, 2013.

Fred H. Bixby Fellowship Program. Through a generous grant from the Fred H. Bixby Foundation, the Population Council created the Bixby Fellowship Program to expand opportunities for recently trained social scientists and biomedical researchers in the health and population fields. More than 20 fellows have participated in the program since 2007, and applications are currently being sought for the 2013 competition. Bixby fellowships allow citizens of developing countries to work with experienced mentors in the Council’s international network
