CALL FOR PAPERS

Call for Papers: Regional Institute for Population Studies, Climate Change and Population Conference on Africa. Submission deadline: February 24, 2012.

Call for Papers: 74th NCFR Annual Conference. Meeting will held in Phoenix, AZ, October 31-November 3, 2012. Submission deadline: March 1, 2012.

Call for Papers: 3rd Annual IGSS Conference. Submission deadline: March 15, 2012.
FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

IRP Extramural Small Grant RFP: Family Complexity. The Institute for Research on Poverty (IRP) seeks to fund extramural research that will enhance our understanding of the relationship of family complexity to poverty and public policy, one of three integrated research themes shaping IRP’s research agenda as a DHHS/ASPE National Poverty Research Center. Application deadline: March 1, 2012.

BCTR Pilot Study Program for Innovation in Translational Research. The BCTR will award approximately 3-4 pilot grants of up to $12,000. The goal of the pilot study program is to encourage researchers to systematically move social and behavioral research into real-world practice and policy. We are especially interested in pilot projects that will partner with Cornell Cooperative Extension, 4-H, the Weill Clinical and Translational Science Center (in New York City), and other Weill units and affiliated organizations. Proposals involving faculty and researchers from more than one discipline are particularly welcome. Application deadline: March 15, 2012.

The Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation Opens Application Tender for Grant Awards. Applications are encouraged in various categories of the on-going grant award scheme for the use of global health, poverty and development, education and information; and other special projects in Europe, Africa, Asia, Oceania, North America and South America. Interested applicants should contact the foundation by email for further information on application procedure.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Research Fellow, Asia Research Institute, National University of Singapore. The Asia Research Institute, National University of Singapore is seeking a Research Fellow to work on the “Migrating out of Poverty Research Programme Consortium” (RPC), funded by the UK’s Department for International Development and coordinated by the University of Sussex. The position will be for 2 years. Interested scholars should apply as soon as possible.

(2) Postdoctoral Positions, DIW Berlin. The Berlin Aging Study II (BASE-II) is a joint project of the Max Planck Institute for Molecular Genetics, the Max Planck Institute of Human Development, the University of Tübingen, the Geriatrics Research Group at Charité Hospital in Berlin, and DIW Berlin, and is funded by the German Federal Ministry of Education and Research (BMBF). The subprojects of the Berlin Aging Study that are based in the Socio-Economic Panel at DIW Berlin deal with survey methodological questions of data quality and health economics analysis. For the BASE II Study, DIW Berlin is seeking to fill the following positions immediately: 1) one Postdoc or Research Associate (in the field of survey research/statistics); 2) one Postdoc or Research Associate (in the field of health economics/labor economics). Application Deadline: February 26, 2012.

Open-Rank Faculty, School of Social Work, University of Michigan. The School of Social Work seeks a faculty member who focuses on issues connected with children in poverty. A successful candidate will have an established research agenda and a record of publication, preferably in peer-reviewed journals, on issues and links between child well-being and poverty; the multiple dimensions of risk factors for children in poverty; and on programs and policies targeted to low income children in multiple spheres, such as social services, public benefits, and education systems. Application deadline: February 29, 2012.
Tenure-track Demographer, Centre for Actuarial Research, Cape Town, South Africa. The Centre for Actuarial Research at the University of Cape Town has a particular interest in African and technical demography, population projections incorporating epidemiological dynamics of HIV/AIDS, and direct estimation of demographic parameters from limited, deficient and defective data. The Centre has a university-funded, tenure-track vacancy for a demographer (ref. SR252/12). The post is being advertised at lecturer, senior lecturer, and associate professor level. For more information on this position and for applications, please read the full announcement. Application deadline: February 29, 2012.

Post Doctoral Research Associate, Office of Population Research at Princeton University. The Office of Population Research at Princeton University is seeking a postdoctoral researcher to work on a project that examines the biological pathways linking social and economic factors to health among older cohorts in Taiwan. Application deadline: March 15, 2012.

Postdoctoral Research Associate-INED. A postdoctoral research position is available at the French National Institute for Demographic Studies (Institut national d’études démographiques, INED) under a 30-month fixed-term contract. The researcher’s role will be to assess survey and census data in order to estimate adult mortality in sub-Saharan Africa. Application deadline: March 31, 2012.

Senior Demographer, Population Center of Innovation. The Senior Demographer position resides in the Population Center of Innovation (COI) which is part of Nielsen’s global Measurement Science organization, serving both the watch and buy businesses. The person in this position will be responsible for developing the methods used for estimating populations/universes for Nielsen’s measurement products in the U.S. and across the globe. Requirements include in-depth experience with U.S. Census Bureau data and methods. Knowledge of international Census, demographic, and/or survey methods is strongly desired. Practical experience applying estimation methods for both small and large areas is a must. Position open until filled.

Editor, Demography. The PAA Publications Committee seeks applications for the position of editor of Demography. The new editor will begin work in May 2013, and will edit the 2014-2016 volumes of the journal. Applicants are asked to submit their CV and plans for editing Demography by July 31, 2012.

Editor, PAA AFFAIRS. The PAA Publications Committee wishes to advise the membership of a search for a new editor of PAA Affairs. The new editor will begin work in January 2013, and will edit the 2013-2015 volumes of the newsletter. PAA members interested in applying for the editorial position should send a brief note of interest and an electronic copy of your CV to the Publications Committee by July 31, 2012.

CPC STUDENT OPPORTUNITIES

CPC PAA 2012 Travel Grants. The CPC is pleased to once again offer travel grants for student affiliates to attend the Population Association of America (PAA) 2012 Annual Meeting in San Francisco, CA, May 3-5, 2012. The CPC will reimburse up to $400 for student affiliates presenting a paper or poster and up to $200 for student affiliates attending (and not presenting). Funds are limited and travel grants are awarded on a first-come, first-served basis with funding priority for presenting students. If you are interested in applying for a PAA 2012 travel grant, please e-mail Erin Oates.

Spring 2012 CPC Graduate Student Reading Group. If you're interested in participating in a demography/population studies reading group during this upcoming spring semester, please email Brian Thiede in the next couple of weeks. It should involve minimal commitment and be a good learning opportunity.
Summer Residential Scholarship Institute at Brown University. Theme: Population and Development: New Approaches to Enduring Global Problems. From June 9-23, 2012, Brown University will host an international residential institute designed to enhance the scholarship, research, methodological skills, training, and networks of early-career social scientists from less developed countries. Participants will receive tailored feedback on their research ideas and will meet and interact with more than 20 of the world's leaders in population and development studies over the course of the 2-week institute. In addition to providing cutting-edge and personalized training, this institute aims to help foster collaborations between the Global North and Global South, as well as among scholars from different developing regions across the world. Application deadline: February 18, 2012.

Summer Internship Opportunities at the Census Bureau. The Demographic Directorate of the United States Census Bureau is currently accepting applications for the 2012 Summer Internship Program. This opportunity is a paid, ten-week program starting June 2012. The program offers interns an opportunity to work within the Social, Economic, and Housing Statistics Division or the Population Division.
