EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Research and Policy Analyst, Demographics & Workforce Group. The Demographics & Workforce Group of the University of Virginia’s Weldon Cooper Center for Public Service invites bright, creative, and motivated individuals to apply for a Research and Policy Analyst position. This position (posting #: 0611606) requires a graduate degree in demography, sociology, economics, geography, statistics, public policy, or related fields. Proficiency in SAS, SPSS, STATA or R is required, as are excellent oral and written communication skills and commitment to work in a team-focused environment in service to the Commonwealth of Virginia. Open until filled.

Associate Professor Sociology, University of Colorado Denver. The Department of Sociology at the University of Colorado Denver is conducting a search for a tenure track faculty member beginning Fall 2013. The search is open rank, but with a strong preference for an individual who can be appointed at the rank of Associate Professor with tenure. Open until filled.

Director, HIV and AIDS Field Research and Programs, Population Council. The Population Council is seeking an experienced health or social scientist to serve as its Director, HIV and AIDS Field Research and Programs. The Council’s HIV and AIDS Program seeks to understand and slow the spread of the HIV epidemic; enable people to reduce the negative impact of HIV on their lives and their families, communities, and societies; and expand the access of underserved groups to innovative products and services that have documented effectiveness. Open until filled.

Managing Editor, Population and Development Review (PDR). The position serves as Managing Editor for Population and Development Review (PDR). PDR is a peer-reviewed journal published quarterly that seeks to advance knowledge of the relationships between population and social, economic, and environmental change, and to provide a forum for discussion of related issues of public policy. Open until filled.

Education/Workforce Data Analyst (WDQI Grant), State of Washington. The Office of Financial Management (OFM) provides vital information, fiscal services and policy support that the Governor, Legislature and state agencies need to serve the people of Washington State. The Forecasting Division of OFM provides estimates of state and local population, monitors changes in the state economy and labor force, and conducts research on a variety of issues affecting the state budget and public policy. The Education Research and Data Center (ERDC) within the Forecasting Division conducts analyses of early learning, K-12, higher education and workforce training programs and education and training issues across the P-20 plus employment spectrum. This is a two year project. Open until filled.
Assistant Professor of Global Health, University of Washington. The Institute for Health Metrics and Evaluation (IHME) and the Department of Global Health within the School of Medicine and the School of Public Health at the University of Washington are recruiting to fill several (up to four) full-time faculty positions at the level of Assistant Professor without tenure. The primary school of the appointment will be determined by qualifications. The successful applicants will have an MD or PhD in epidemiology, population health, biostatistics, health informatics, health economics, health policy, or a related field. The successful applicant will have a proven record of quantitative research in a health-related field, including statistical modeling using multiple and large data sets. Open until filled.

Lecturer of Global Health, University of Washington. The Institute for Health Metrics and Evaluation (IHME) and the Department of Global Health within the School of Medicine and the School of Public Health at the University of Washington are recruiting to fill several (up to six) full-time faculty positions at the Lecturer non-tenure-track level. The school of the appointment will be determined by qualifications. The Lecturer(s) will be part of the Global Burden of Disease and Injuries team and have an important instructional role in mentoring pre-doctoral and post-doctoral fellows in the burden of disease and the field of health metrics. The Lecturer(s) may also work with fellows and colleagues in other countries. Open until filled.

Interdisciplinary Supervisory Social Scientist/Health Scientist/Statistician (Demography), DHHS/CDC. This position (HHS-CDC-D2-13-833634) is responsible for the activities of the Birth and Infant Health Team and the National Survey of Family Growth (NSFG) Team of the Reproductive Statistics Branch in the Division of Vital Statistics. This position provides leadership and scientific direction for all aspects of preparing and disseminating vital statistics data from the national birth, linked birth, infant death, and fetal death files and the NSFG. Application deadline: March 8, 2013.

Postdoctoral Fellowship, Center for Research on Inequalities and the Life Course, Yale University. The Center for Research on Inequalities and the Life Course (CIQLE) seeks applications for a postdoctoral fellowship for one or two years, to start in Fall 2013. Applicants should be interested in quantitative empirical research on social inequality and expect to use 50% of their time for research collaboration with CIQLE faculty. Applicants should have completed their Ph.D. by the beginning of the appointment but not earlier than 2009. Application deadline: March 15, 2013.

Postdoctoral Researcher, National Institute of Demographic Studies (INED, Paris). INED is organizing a competitive examination to recruit a post-doctoral researcher for a one-year period, renewable for one further year. Applicants must hold a PhD awarded between 15/03/2008 and 15/03/2013 in a discipline related to the population sciences (demography, economics, epidemiology, history, sociology, etc.). Application deadline: March 15, 2013.

Public Policy Fellowships, Williams Institute at UCLA. In 2013, the Williams Institute will offer two Public Policy Fellowships to graduates of a recent graduate degree program, including MA, MS, MPP, MPH, JD, and PhD. The purpose of the fellowship is to support the public policy research of the Williams Institute on sexual orientation and gender identity issues. Submission deadline: April 1, 2013.

Census Bureau Recruitment at the PAA. The U.S. Census Bureau has full-time opportunities in the domestic and international programs for qualified U.S. citizens in the areas of geography, demography, sociology, economics, and related social sciences. We are looking for candidates at all levels of education (BA, MA, PhD). Training in demographic analysis, survey research, geographic information systems, and/or quantitative data analysis of large datasets is preferred. These openings offer applicants the opportunity to work on one or more of the following topics: population distribution; population estimates and projections; housing; income; disability; health insurance coverage; education; and migration. Representatives will be recruiting during the Population Association of America (PAA) annual meeting in New Orleans, LA. We will conduct 30 minute informational recruiting sessions during the conference (April 11, 12). Please email David Zaslow to sign up prior to the conference or visit the Census Bureau's exhibition booth during the meeting. A discussion about working at the Census Bureau will be held Friday, April 12th, from 2-3pm, in Salon 817.

CPC STUDENT OPPORTUNITIES

Demography Minor. The CPC offers a campus-wide minor in Demography that is open to PhD students in all social science graduate fields. Admission to the Demography minor requires that at least one member of the student’s special committee is a CPC affiliate. Students interested in signing up for the Demography minor should contact Lindy Williams or Geysa Smiljanic.

CPC Travel Grants for 2013 PAA Annual Meeting. The CPC is pleased to once again offer travel grants for student affiliates to attend the 2013 PAA Annual Meeting in New Orleans, LA, April 11-13, 2013. If you are interested in applying for a PAA 2013 travel grant, please e-mail Erin Oates and indicate whether you are presenting or attending.

2013 Demographic Directorate Internship Program. The Census Bureau is now accepting applications for its 2013 Demographic Directorate Internship Program. This opportunity is a paid, ten-week program starting in June 2013. We seek highly motivated individuals at all education levels with excellent analytic, quantitative, computer, and communication skills.

Public Policy Institute of California Summer Intern – Project 3 – Demographic and Spatial Analysis of Crime Victims. The Richard J. Riordan Summer Intern Program provides an opportunity for undergraduate and graduate students interested in a public policy career to work in a policy research environment. This summer internship is located in PPIC’s San Francisco Office. Compensation is $16 per hour. This fulltime internship will last up to three months, ideally beginning June 3, 2013. Application deadline: March 10, 2013.

Summer Institute in LGBT Population Health Research. The Summer Institute in LGBT Population Health is hosted annually by The Center for Population Research in LGBT Health at The Fenway Institute. The Institute is a 4-week training program open to graduate students and early career scholars that links promising students to training opportunities they need to improve the reach, quality and methodological rigor of their research and to prepare them for careers in LGBT health and population science. Application deadline: April 15, 2013.

2014 RWJ Health Policy Doctoral Fellowship. The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation (RWJF) Center for Health Policy at the Meharry Medical College will award up to five new doctoral fellowships for its Health Policy Fellows Program. The Health Policy Fellows Program is a prestigious doctoral fellowship program for students with educational and research interests that include health and health policy analysis and research. The RWJF Health Policy Fellows Program seeks to increase the participation of underrepresented groups throughout the nation in the development, implementation, and analysis of health policy. Priority deadline: January 15, 2014.
