CALL FOR PAPERS

Call for Papers: 3rd Annual IGSS Conference. Submission deadline: March 15, 2012.

Call for Papers: 2012 NSFG Research Conference. Submission deadline: June 18, 2012.

Introducing a new journal: Spatial Demography. Spatial Demography is a peer-reviewed open-access journal published by PressForward which publishes original scholarship involving the spatial analysis of demographic processes.

FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

BCTR Pilot Study Program for Innovation in Translational Research. The BCTR will award approximately 3-4 pilot grants of up to $12,000. The goal of the pilot study program is to encourage researchers to systematically move social and behavioral research into real-world practice and policy. We are especially interested in pilot projects that will partner with Cornell Cooperative Extension, 4-H, the Weill Clinical and Translational Science Center (in New York City), and other Weill units and affiliated organizations. Proposals involving faculty and researchers from more than one discipline are particularly welcome. Application deadline: March 15, 2012.

CPC GRA Funding Announcement AY 2012-13. The Cornell Population Center (CPC) invites applications from faculty for Graduate Research Assistant (GRA) support for the 2012-2013 Academic Year. Up to 4 one-semester GRAs (15 hours per week) will be funded at the Contract College rate during AY 2012-2013, and faculty may apply for 1 or 2 semesters. Application deadline: April 6, 2012.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

[2] Postdoctoral Research Associate, NYU. NYU’s Institute of Human Development and Social Change is seeking two Postdoctoral Research Associates to collaborate on innovative research examining children’s self-regulation within the contexts of socioeconomic disadvantage and classroom-based intervention. Research Associates will assist with the design, collection, and analysis of data for large, federally funded intervention research studies. Fellowship candidates are expected to have a demonstrated commitment to interdisciplinary longitudinal study, and must have completed a terminal degree in their field (e.g., PhD, MD, DrPH, EdD) by the time of their appointment (Fall 2012). In accordance with NIH regulations, applicants must be US citizens or permanent residents. Applications will be accepted and reviewed until the position is filled.

Advanced Assistant, Associate or Full Professor, Washington State University. The occupant of the position is expected to pursue external grant funding opportunities in survey research, provide training in survey methods, collaborate with Social and Economic Sciences Research Center (SESRC) staff on survey projects, conduct independent research leading to publication, teach undergraduate and graduate sociology courses, mentor undergraduate and graduate students, and engage in service. The successful candidate must have a Ph.D. in Sociology or related field by August 16, 2012 as well as expertise in applied survey research methodology and an excellent record of research or research potential. Applications will be accepted and reviewed until the position is filled.

Assistant or Associate Professor, University of Texas M.D. Anderson Cancer Center. This is a unique position that will work with the Center for Community Engaged Translational Research (CCETR) and with a well established and funded research program addressing disparities in health risk behaviors (tobacco, alcohol, diet, physical activity). The successful candidate will be expected to play a lead role in CCETR with respect to facilitating community based research, including participation in writing grants. The successful candidate will also have the opportunity to participate in several NIH funded smoking and alcohol intervention, multiple risk factor intervention, mechanism, and dissemination/implementation studies. Applications will be accepted and reviewed until the position is filled. To apply, email a cover letter, curriculum vita and the names and contact information for at least three academic references to: David W. Wetter, Ph.D.

Post Doctoral Research Associate, Office of Population Research at Princeton University. The Office of Population Research at Princeton University is seeking a postdoctoral researcher to work on a project that examines the biological pathways linking social and economic factors to health among older cohorts in Taiwan. Application deadline: March 15, 2012.

Postdoctoral Research Associate-INED. A postdoctoral research position is available at the French National Institute for Demographic Studies (Institut national d’études démographiques, INED) under a 30-month fixed-term contract. The researcher’s role will be to assess survey and census data in order to estimate adult mortality in sub-Saharan Africa. Application deadline: March 31, 2012.

Postdoctoral Research Associate, SPaDE. The Linnaeus Center on Social Policy and Family Dynamics in Europe (SPaDE), Stockholm University. The position is for a two-year period with start during fall 2012 / no later than January 1, 2013. SPaDE is administered at the Stockholm University Demography Unit (SUDA), Department of Sociology and led by Professor of Demography Elizabeth Thomson. The Center brings together expertise in policy studies and demography from SUDA, the Swedish Institute for Social Research (SOFI) and the Department of Human Geography and collaborates with scholars from throughout Europe. Application deadline: April 15, 2012.

Editor, Demography. The PAA Publications Committee seeks applications for the position of editor of Demography. The new editor will begin work in May 2013, and will edit the 2014-2016 volumes of the journal. Applicants are asked to submit their CV and plans for editing Demography by July 31, 2012.

Editor, PAA AFFAIRS. The PAA Publications Committee wishes to advise the membership of a search for a new editor of PAA Affairs. The new editor will begin work in January 2013, and will edit the 2013-2015 volumes of the newsletter. PAA members interested in applying for the editorial position should send a brief note of interest and an electronic copy of your CV to the Publications Committee by July 31, 2012.

CPC STUDENT OPPORTUNITIES

Spring 2012 CPC Graduate Student Reading Group. If you're interested in participating in a demography/population studies reading group during this upcoming spring semester, please email Brian Thiede in the next couple of weeks. It should involve minimal commitment and be a good learning opportunity.
