EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Senior Demographer, Urban Institute. The Urban Institute is seeking experienced social science researchers with expertise in demography. Areas of particular interest include family demography; urban demography; population health and aging; the demography of poverty and inequality; migration; and immigration. This position is in the Urban Institute’s Center on Labor, Human Services, and Population, a multi-disciplinary center that seeks to understand the factors shaping the well-being of families and individuals through high quality, policy relevant research on population change, the family, labor markets, and the public policies and social services that affect vulnerable populations. Researchers in LHP analyze employment and income data, study how the U.S. population is growing and changing, and evaluate programs and policies dealing with access to social services and benefits, work-family issues, child welfare, adolescent risk behavior, job training, and immigration. Position is open until filled.

Postdoctoral Research Associate-INED. A postdoctoral research position is available at the French National Institute for Demographic Studies (Institut national d’études démographiques, INED) under a 30-month fixed-term contract. The researcher’s role will be to assess survey and census data in order to estimate adult mortality in sub-Saharan Africa. Application deadline: March 31, 2012.

Lecturer in Sociology, University of Bath. The University of Bath, Department of Social and Policy Sciences, is advertising for a Lecturer in Sociology. Research on children, youth, and families is a priority for this position. Application deadline: April 8, 2012.

Postdoctoral Research Associate, SPaDE. The Linnaeus Center on Social Policy and Family Dynamics in Europe (SPaDE), Stockholm University. The position is for a two-year period with start during fall 2012 / no later than January 1, 2013. SPaDE is administered at the Stockholm University Demography Unit (SUDA), Department of Sociology and led by Professor of Demography Elizabeth Thomson. The Center brings together expertise in policy studies and demography from SUDA, the Swedish Institute for Social Research (SOFI) and the Department of Human Geography and collaborates with scholars from throughout Europe. Application deadline: April 15, 2012.

Director, Gender, Population and Development, ICRW. ICRW is seeking a full-time director to lead projects on population, development and women’s empowerment. The ideal candidate will have subject-matter expertise and professional experience in population and reproductive health issues, and in women’s empowerment, especially on issues such as adolescents and transitions to adulthood, child marriage, sex selection, fertility trends, maternal health, and reproductive behavior. The position is based in ICRW’s headquarters in Washington, DC. Application deadline: April 23, 2012.

Editor, Demography. The PAA Publications Committee seeks applications for the position of editor of Demography. The new editor will begin work in May 2013, and will edit the 2014-2016 volumes of the journal. Applicants are asked to submit their CV and plans for editing Demography by July 31, 2012.

Editor, PAA AFFAIRS. The PAA Publications Committee wishes to advise the membership of a search for a new editor of PAA Affairs. The new editor will begin work in January 2013, and will edit the 2013-2015 volumes of the newsletter. PAA members interested in applying for the editorial position should send a brief note of interest and an electronic copy of your CV to the Publications Committee by July 31, 2012.
CPC STUDENT OPPORTUNITIES
Spring 2012 CPC Graduate Student Reading Group. If you're interested in participating in a demography/population studies reading group during this upcoming spring semester, please email Brian Thiede in the next couple of weeks. It should involve minimal commitment and be a good learning opportunity.
