EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Policy Analyst – International Programs, PRB. The Population Reference Bureau (PRB) seeks a Policy Analyst to serve as a staff member of International Programs. Policy Analyst will conduct research and analysis in support of case studies: compile data from a variety of authoritative sources (international and country-specific), document population and socio-economic trends, and collect information on policy regimes. Degree in economics, public policy, demography, public health, or related field. Strong background in quantitative research methods preferred. Position is open until filled.

Postdoctoral Fellowships, The University of Queensland, Australia. The Institute for Social Science Research (ISSR) is inviting applications for postdoctoral fellowships, commencing early calendar year 2013. Up to two fellowships will be awarded. The Institute welcomes applicants with disciplinary backgrounds in Criminology, Demography, Economics, Political Science, Psychology, Social Policy, Sociology and Statistics. Researchers with experience and expertise in survey methods, social statistics, analysis of longitudinal and/or multilevel data, or randomized field experiments are particularly encouraged. Application deadline: May 28, 2012.

(2) Postdoctoral Associates, SIMASM. Two post-doctoral stipends of two years are announced by the research program “Microdata research on childhood for lifelong health and welfare” which is funded by the Swedish Research Council (VR) through the Swedish Initiative for research on Microdata in the Social and Medical Sciences (SIMSAM). The research program is also funded by Umeå University and ‘Kempestiftelserna’. Application deadline: May 31, 2012.

Assistant Specialist in Social Demography at Univ. of Hawai`i at Manoa. The Center on the Family, University of Hawai`i at Manoa is seeking for applications for an Assistant Specialist in Social Demography. Specialist will design and conduct integrated research and outreach activities in areas relating to the well-being of families in Hawai`i. Examples of relevant content areas include, but are not limited to: small area population estimation, family and household, race and ethnicity, and population health. Doctoral degree in a social science, public health, or a related field, with a specialization in demography is required. Application deadline: May 31, 2012.

(2) Postdoctoral Researchers, INED. INED/iPOPs has two postdoctoral researcher positions for a period of one year, renewable once.
