EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Assistant Professor of Sociology & Anthropology, Bowdoin College. The Bowdoin College Department of Sociology and Anthropology seeks applicants for a tenure-track position in sociology at the Assistant Professor or Instructor level, beginning fall 2013. Bowdoin has highly motivated students, a two-course per semester teaching load, and excellent support for faculty research. Open until filled.

Director, Center on Aging, University of Hawaii at Manoa. The Director is charged with academic and administrative leadership for COA, serving as an active supporter and proponent of the mission and goals of the Manoa campus and the University of Hawaii system, and representing COA and the University of Hawaii in gerontological research and education locally, nationally, and internationally. Open until filled.

(Senior) Research Fellowships, One-Year Visiting (Senior) Research Fellowships and Postdoctoral Fellowships Asia Research Institute, National University of Singapore. Applications are invited for (Senior) Research Fellowships and Postdoctoral Fellowships at the Asia Research Institute (ARI) for commencement between June/July 2013 or December 2013/January 2014. Applications for One-Year Visiting (Senior) Research Fellowship are also invited for commencement between April, July or October 2013. Areas of research focus: Asian Migration, Asian Urbanisms, Changing Family in Asia, Cultural Studies in Asia, Religion and Globalisation in Asian Contexts, Science, Technology, and Society, Open Cluster, and Metacluster: Historical Sociology of Asian Connections. Application deadline: August 24, 2012.

Postdoctoral Fellow, George Mason University. The George Mason University, Department of Sociology and Anthropology, Institute for Immigration Research (IIR) invites applications for a one-year, renewable position as a Postdoctoral Fellow with a background in sociology, economics, demography, or a related field. The IIR is a newly formed, privately funded initiative to explore the contributions of immigrants to the U.S. economy. Application deadline: August 25, 2012.

Professor of Sociology, University of Texas-San Antonio. The Department of Sociology at The University of Texas at San Antonio invites applications for up to two positions at the assistant or associate professor level beginning Fall 2013. All applicants must have a Ph.D. in Sociology by August 31, 2013, with the ability to teach courses in research design, and qualitative and/or quantitative research methods. Areas of concentration are open. Areas of strength in the department include health, Latino/a studies, and religion. Preference may be given to scholars in these areas, though the department welcomes applications from all qualified candidates. Application deadline: September 1, 2012.

Research Scientist, Columbia Population Research Center. The Columbia Population Research Center (CPRC) seeks a Research Scientist (RS) to join the Center and assist in managing and carrying out a number of its major research initiatives. CPRC is a multidisciplinary community of scholars unified by a commitment to research that addresses the health and wellbeing of vulnerable populations in the context of local and global inequalities and that informs policies affecting those populations. CPRC promotes research in four signature areas: children, youth, and families; HIV/AIDS and reproductive health; immigration/migration; and urbanism. Application deadline: September 8, 2012.

MZES Research Fellowship, University of Mannheim. The MZES is an interdisciplinary research institute of the University of Mannheim dedicated to comparative European social research and the analysis of European integration processes. It is Germany’s largest university-based social-science research centre. The Centre seeks to recruit an outstanding social scientist as a Research Fellow to work in Research Department European Societies and their Integration. Successful candidates are expected to publish in international academic journals. They should develop and direct projects in one of the department's three research areas and attract research grants. Application deadline: September 8, 2012.

Assistant, Associate, or Full Professor position, Diversity and Democracy, UC Berkeley. The University of California, Berkeley invites applications for a position as an Assistant, Associate, or Full Professor in any, or some combination, of the following areas: 1) diversity and identity; 2) diversity, civil society and political action; or 3) legal or philosophical frameworks for diverse democracies. The anticipated starting date is July 1, 2013. The position is part of the interdisciplinary Haas Diversity Research Center (HDRC) and will be conducted under the auspices of its Diversity and Democracy cluster. Application deadline: September 17, 2012.

Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Health & Society Scholars. The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Health & Society Scholars program provides two years of support to postdoctoral scholars at all stages of their careers to build the nation’s capacity for research and leadership to address the multiple determinants of population health and contribute to policy change. The program is based on the principle that progress in the field of population health depends upon multidisciplinary collaboration and exchange. Application deadline: September 21, 2012, 3:00 p.m. EDT.

Associate or Full Professor of Demography, University of Texas at San Antonio (UTSA). The University of Texas at San Antonio (UTSA) has an opening for an Associate or Full Professor in the Department of Demography to begin Fall 2013. The successful applicant will have an outstanding publication record indicating national/international prominence; a strong record of acquisition of extramural funding; a record of teaching and student mentoring; and a strong commitment to teaching. The Department of Demography only offers a Ph.D. program, and all courses offered are at the Ph.D. level. Appointment will be in the Department of Demography within the College of Public Policy (COPP), with opportunities for involvement in research at the Institute for Demographic and Socioeconomic Research. Application deadline: October 1, 2012.

Assistant Professor of Anthropology, Brown University. The Department of Anthropology at Brown University invites applications for a tenure-track assistant professor position in socio-cultural anthropology with a specific focus in population studies. The geographical area is open, but expertise on Africa, Asia, or the Middle East is a plus. The successful candidate will be expected to participate actively in Brown’s Population Studies and Training Center, including pursuing an active research agenda and teaching and supervising graduate students in the department's anthropology and population track. Application deadline: October 1, 2012.

Associate Professor/Advanced Assistant Professor of Sociology, University of Utah. The Department of Sociology at the University of Utah invites applications for a tenured Associate Professor or tenure-track advanced Assistant Professor to begin July, 2013. We are seeking a sociologist who will contribute to the Department’s specialty in Population and Health. The successful applicant will have a strong record of success in research, including extramural funding and an accomplished record of scholarly publication. Preference will be given to candidates whose research focuses on medical sociology, family sociology, fertility, population aging, migration, social epidemiology, statistical methods in population research, or other areas which complement current faculty interests. Applicants should demonstrate a commitment to teaching and mentoring students at both the undergraduate and graduate levels. Application deadline: October 5, 2012.

Assistant/Associate/Full Professor of Population Studies/Demography at University of Minnesota. The University of Minnesota invites applications for two open-rank, full-time, tenure-track or tenured faculty positions. We seek demographers or population researchers who can actively contribute to the research and training missions of the University, the Minnesota Population Center (MPC), and affiliated colleges and academic units. For each position, the tenure home will be in Applied Economics, Geography, History, Public Affairs, Public Health (Epidemiology and Community Health and Health Policy and Management), Sociology or another unit affiliated with the MPC. Application deadline: October 15, 2012.

CPC STUDENT OPPORTUNITIES

DSOC/PAM 6720 - Demography Pro Seminar. The Demography Pro Seminar is offered in the fall and is taught by CPC faculty affiliates. The course is required if you are interested in the Demography Minor. Please contact Lindy Williams or Geysa Smiljanic if you have any questions.

Fall 2012 CPC Graduate Student Reading Group. If you’re interested in participating in a demography/population studies reading group during this upcoming fall semester, please email Brian Thiede in the next couple of weeks. It should involve minimal commitment and be a good learning opportunity.

Fulbright Competition. The Fulbright Program of the U.S. Department of State is administered on the Cornell campus by the Mario Einaudi Center’s Fulbright Adviser. These grants for study or research abroad are awarded on a nationally competitive basis to U.S. citizens who are graduate students or will have earned the bachelor’s degree prior to September of the year for which the grant is being awarded. Application deadline: September 6, 2012.

International Research Travel Grant. The Mario Einaudi Center and its associated Programs sponsor the International Research Travel Grants. These grants provide travel support for Cornell University graduate students conducting short-term research and/or field work in countries outside the United States. Applicants must be enrolled in an approved PhD or Masters degree program at Cornell University. They must also show proof that they have applied for funding from the Director of Graduate Studies in their own fields of study. Application deadline: Early February, 2013.
