CPC STUDENT OPPORTUNITIES

Demography Minor. The CPC offers a campus-wide minor in Demography that is open to Ph.D. students in all social science graduate fields (including Statistics). Admission to the Demography minor requires that at least one member of the student’s special committee is a CPC affiliate. Course requirements include: Demographic Techniques (PAM 6060/DSOC 6080); Demography Pro-Seminar (PAM/DSOC 6720); and at least one additional graduate-level course (500 level or higher) with clear demographic content and focus. Students interested in signing up for the Demography minor should contact Geysa Smiljanic (5-7772). Professor David Brown (dlb17 or 5-3164) is the minor field’s director.

Call for Applications: ACSF Agrarian and Rural Transformation Fellowship Program. The Agrarian and Rural Transformation Fellowship Program (ART) will “encourage students at a formative stage of their career to begin thinking beyond their dissertation, to turn their specific research projects into longstanding, impactful research programs that connect to broad concerns transcending disciplinary boundaries. Fellows will be advanced doctoral students or post-docs who show exceptional promise for scholarship on Agrarian and Rural Transformation and demonstrate an eagerness to reach across disciplinary boundaries to inform their own emerging research program and to help shape others’ scholarship.” Contact Prof. Chris Barrett, ACSF Associate Director for Economic Development Programs, with questions. Deadline: September 30, 2011.
