CPC AFFILIATE NEWS

Joe Francis, CPC Affiliate; Director, Program on Applied Demographics; and Associate Professor of Development Sociology, was named co-Chair of the Federal State Cooperative Program for Population Estimates (FSCPE) Geography Subcommittee. The mission of the FSCPE Geography Subcommittee is to bring to the Geography and Population Divisions the ongoing expertise and insight of state data partners who are familiar with census geography and its importance for the decennial census, ongoing surveys, and the population estimates program. Congratulations Joe!

CALL FOR PAPERS

FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

RFA for Research Infrastructure for Demographic and Behavioral Population Science (R24) (HD12-186).

Basic research on decision making: Cognitive, affective, and developmental perspectives (R01). This Funding Opportunity Announcement (FOA) encourages research grant applications that propose to increase understanding of the basic cognitive, affective, motivational, and social processes that underlie decision making across the lifespan. Letter of intent due: December 18, 2011 and application due: January 18, 2012.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Frank H.T. Rhodes Post-doctoral Fellowship, Cornell Population Program. The Cornell Population Center (CPC) invites applicants for the Frank H.T. Rhodes Post-doctoral Fellowship (Job Number 16174). The start date for the position will be August 15, 2012 and will be funded for 2 years, subject to a satisfactory first year evaluation. Selection will be based on scholarly potential, ability to work in multi-disciplinary settings, and the support of a faculty mentor and CPC affiliate at Cornell who will work closely with the post-doctoral associate. Preference will be given to fellows with research interests in areas broadly related to the CPC’s three main foci: families & children, health behaviors & disparities, or poverty/inequality. Screening of applications begins February 1, 2012, and will continue until the position is filled. Applicants must have a Ph.D. in economics, sociology, public health, public policy, or another related social science discipline by August 15, 2012. For questions, please contact Erin Oates (eo73@cornell.edu).

Research Associate, Obesity and Environment, Carolina Population Center. The Carolina Population Center invites applicants for a research associate (1003882) with expertise in longitudinal and multilevel complex statistical modeling. Extensive experience with longitudinal modeling techniques (e.g., fixed effects, hazard modeling, and/or econometric modeling) is required. Application deadline: October 31, 2011.

PAA Fellowship. The Population Association of America is delighted to announce a new opportunity for PAA members: Participation in the prestigious Science and Technology Fellowship Program of the American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS). This fellowship provides an exciting opportunity for researchers to come to Washington, DC and use population science, outside of the academic setting, to inform public policy and work for one year in a federal agency. Application deadline: December 15, 2011.

Postdoctoral Research Associate/The Center for Health and Wellbeing (CHW), Princeton University. The Center for Health and Wellbeing (CHW), part of the Woodrow Wilson School, invites outstanding researchers to apply for appointments as Postdoctoral Research Associates (0110625) for the 2012-2013 year. Applications are welcome from researchers in a variety of disciplines, including medicine, psychology, biology, epidemiology, economics, sociology, and related social science disciplines. Application deadline: December 15, 2011.

Postdoctoral Research Associate/Program in Global Health and Health Policy, Princeton University. The interdisciplinary Program in Global Health and Health Policy, administered by the Woodrow Wilson School, invites outstanding researchers to apply for appointment as a Postdoctoral Research Associate (0110623). We seek strong interdisciplinary candidates with expertise in one or more of the following areas: demography, economics, epidemiology, disease ecology, public health, vaccines. Application deadline: December 31, 2011.

Population Council’s Bixby Fellowship Program. Through a generous grant from the Fred H. Bixby Foundation, the Population Council has created the Bixby Fellowship Program to expand opportunities for recently trained social scientists and biomedical researchers in the health and population fields. Bixby fellowships allow citizens of developing countries to work with experienced mentors in the Council's international network of offices. Fellows work on projects in the Council’s three program areas: Reproductive Health, HIV/AIDS, and Poverty, Gender and Youth. Application deadline: January 15, 2012.

NICHD Postdoctoral Traineeship, Population Research Center, University of Texas at Austin. The Population Research Center (PRC) at The University of Texas at Austin will have two openings for NICHD-funded postdoctoral positions starting September 1, 2012. Research is concentrated in four thematic areas: Health Disparities, Educational Inequality & Opportunity, Partnership, Parenting, & Human Development, and Work and Stratification. Postdoctoral fellows must have a PhD in sociology, demography, public health, family studies or a related social science discipline. Application deadline: January 28, 2012.

NIH Postdoctoral Fellowship, Office of Population Research at Princeton University. The Office of Population Research at Princeton University invites applications for an NIH postdoctoral fellowship. Candidates must have completed an MD or a PhD in demography, sociology, statistics, or other relevant field before appointment. Application deadline: February 1, 2012.

Post Doctoral Research Associate, Office of Population Research at Princeton University. The Office of Population Research at Princeton University is seeking a postdoctoral researcher to work on a project that examines the biological pathways linking social and economic factors to health among older cohorts in Taiwan. Application deadline: March 15, 2012.

CPC STUDENT OPPORTUNITIES

Demography Minor. The CPC offers a campus-wide minor in Demography that is open to Ph.D. students in all social science graduate fields (including Statistics). Admission to the Demography minor requires that at least one member of the student’s special committee is a CPC affiliate. Course requirements include: Demographic Techniques (PAM 6060/DSOC 6080); Demography Pro-Seminar (PAM/DSOC 6720); and at least one additional graduate-level course (500 level or higher) with clear demographic content and focus. Students interested in signing up for the Demography minor should contact Geysa Smiljanic (5-7772). Professor David Brown (dlb17 or 5-3164) is the minor field’s director.
