Immigration, Geography, and Race/Ethnicity in the United States (REU Summer Program). The Population Research Center at the University of Texas at Austin, in collaboration with the Department of Sociology, is hosting the Research Experience for Undergraduates (REU) program in Immigration, Geography, and Race/Ethnicity in the U.S. for the summer of 2010. This eight-week summer program, which is funded by a NSF grant, pays for tuition, room and board, and computer expenses. REU
students also receive a $4,000 stipend for participation in the program. Application deadline is February 28th, 2010.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Postdoctoral Fellowship at the Cornell Population Program. The Cornell Population Program (CPP) invites applicants for the newly funded Frank H.T. Rhodes Postdoctoral Fellowships. The start date for the position will be August 16, 2010 and will be funded for 2 years, subject to a satisfactory first year evaluation. Preference will be given to fellows with research interests in areas broadly related to the CPP’s three main foci: families & children, health behaviors & disparities, or poverty/inequality. Fellows will have access to the full range of university resources and receive an annual stipend of $50,000 plus health benefits and a modest research/travel account. Applicants must have a Ph.D. in demography, economics, sociology, or another related social science discipline by August 16, 2010. Screening of applications begins February 8, 2010, and will continue until the position is filled.

Epidemiologists (Assistant or Associate Professor). The University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston (UTMB) is recruiting two epidemiologists to join the faculty in the Department of Preventive Medicine and Community Health (PMCH). The positions will start on or before September 1, 2010; review of applications will begin February 1, 2010. Send materials to Search Committee (lrudkin@utmb.edu). Applicants must also submit an application and CV online.

Researcher at INED. The Institut National d’Etudes Démographiques (INED) announces vacancies for two researchers in 2010 to work on the following themes: Socio-demography and economics of international migration; Public policy assessment; Health policies; Socio-demographic analysis of vulnerable populations; Gender issues in sexual and reproductive health. You can also apply for a position that focuses on other themes if you have in-depth knowledge and specific know-how in another discipline covered by INED. Application forms must be downloaded by February 10, 2010.

Assistant, Associate or Full Sociology Professor at Queens College. Queens College seeks an Assistant, Associate or Full Professor with expertise in Cyberinfrastructure as applied to population, demographic or epidemiological studies. This is one of a cluster of hires supported by the CUNY Central Office, as such, the incumbent will be expected to interact and cooperate in this initiative to enhance the use of Cyberinfrastructure in Research at CUNY. Appointment will be in the one of the following: Sociology, Computer Science, Urban Studies Departments or School of Earth and Environmental Sciences. Open until filled, application review will begin on February 12, 2010.

Dissertation Fellowship in Population, Reproductive Health, and Economic Development. The Hewlett/IIE Dissertation Fellowship in Population, Reproductive Health, and Economic Development will support up to 8 two-year fellowships starting August 2010, with awards announced in late April to early May. Fellowship recipients are awarded $20,000 per year for two years to cover expenses incurred while working on their dissertation, including tuition, travel for research purposes, acquisition of data and research materials, and personal living expenses. Students currently enrolled full-time in Ph.D. programs in the United States and Canada are eligible to apply. Deadline for applying is February 26, 2010.

HUD's OPD&R Sabbatical-In-Residence. The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD)'s Office of Policy Development and Research (PD&R) seeks scholars and academics for its Sabbatical-in-Residence program. The Department, with the President's endorsement, has identified several national challenges in the economic, social and energy areas that will require a more expansive role for housing and community development. HUD is interested in engaging researchers with specific knowledge and expertise to advance policy development in each of the following areas: Multifamily Housing Finance; Affordable Housing Finance; Cost-Effectiveness; Elderly Issues; and Sustainability. Deadline for applying is March 1, 2010.

Postdoctoral Research Associate at Princeton University. The Office of Population Research at Princeton University is seeking a postdoctoral researcher to work on a project that examines the biological pathways linking social and economic factors to health among older cohorts in Taiwan. Applications will be considered starting March 15, 2010.

Faculty Position in Women’s Health (Assistant Professor). The University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston (UTMB) is recruiting to fill a faculty position with a primary appointment in the Department of Preventive Medicine and Community Health (PMCH) and an affiliation with UTMB’s Center for Interdisciplinary Research in Women’s Health (CIRWH). The position will start on or before September 1, 2010 contingent on receipt of funding; review of applications will begin April 1, 2010. Send materials to the Search Committee Chair, Dr. Kyriakos Markides (kmarkide@utmb.edu). Applicants must also submit an application and CV online.
