CPP STUDENT SECTION
Opportunities
New CPP Demography Minor
The CPP offers a campus-wide minor in Demography that is open to Ph.D. students in all social science graduate fields (including Statistics). Admission to the Demography minor requires that at least one member of the student's special committee is a CPP affiliate. Course requirements include:
- one demographic methods course (PAM 6060/DSoc 6080)
- the Demography pro-seminar (DSoc/PAM 6720)
- and at least one additional graduate-level course (500 level or higher) with clear demographic content and focus.

Students interested in signing up for the minor should contact Ms. Geysa Smiljanic. David Brown is the minor field’s director.

The CPP is aware that a number of advanced students who have completed demographic methods and one or more graduate-level demography courses are now conducting dissertation research outside of Ithaca, and that they left campus prior to the introduction of the demography pro-seminar. If you are in this situation, and wish to be considered for the minor in demography, please submit your transcript to the DGS, David Brown, for consideration.

Fall 2010 Pro-Seminar
The pro-seminar DSoc/PAM 6720 (demography pro-seminar) was introduced Fall 2009, and will be offered each Fall. The pro-seminar is designed for second year graduate students, but students at any stage in their training are welcome. Please give the seminar careful consideration for next fall. It will be offered on Mondays at 10:10am-1:10pm in room 32 Warren Hall.

European Doctoral School of Demography: Call for Applications. The European Doctoral School of Demography (EDSD) invites applications for school year 2010-2011. The EDSD was founded in 2005 on the initiative of the European Association for Population Studies (EAPS). It currently receives the support of 6 universities (Lund, Amsterdam, Barcelona, Groningen, Roma, Rostock) and 4 research organisms (INED, NIDI, MPIDR, VID). Application deadline: April 15, 2010.

Funding Opportunities
OPRE Funding Announcement. Funds for Child Care Research Scholars grants are available to support dissertation research on child care policy issues in partnership with State Child Care and Development Fund (CCDF) lead agencies. Funding is dependent on availability and government interest. Application deadline: May 3, 2010.

Employment
Summer Research Assistantship, CCSF at Cornell University. The Cornell Center for a Sustainable Future (CCSF) seeks student researchers to gather data on social, economic, health and environmental indicators for an international media project about hunger around the world. This paid position would be full-time (40 hours/week) for 8-10 weeks, with flexible hours and location on campus. Please send a resume (including a list of relevant courses and the name and contact details of one or two references), as well as a brief cover letter indicating dates of availability and whether eligible for federal work study, Cornell Tradition or related support, to Professor Chris Barrett, Cornell Center for a Sustainable Future, 216 Rice Hall. Review of applications will begin March 31 and will continue until the positions are filled.

Fertility and Empowerment Post-Doctoral Fellow. ICRW is offering a post-doctoral fellowship for a social scientist with gender and population expertise at its Washington, D.C. office. This fellowship is geared toward early career Ph.D. professionals who would like to conduct research within an action research organization and network with a wide range of experts in gender and population in resource-poor settings. Screening of applicants will continue until the position is filled.

Postdoctoral Scholar - NORC at the University of Chicago. The National Opinion Research Center (NORC) at the University of Chicago seeks applicants for a two year post-doctoral scholar with interest in longitudinal data or program evaluation. Screening will begin April 1, 2010 and will continue until position is filled.

Postdoctoral Research Associate. The Institute of Behavioral Science (IBS) and the Department of Sociology at the University of Colorado Boulder seek a Postdoctoral Research Associate for a two-year position that can begin as early as August 15, 2010. Screening will begin April 15, 2010 and will continue until position is filled.

Demographic Directorate 2010 Summer Internship Program. The Demographic Directorate of the United States Census Bureau is currently accepting applications for the 2010 Summer Internship Program. This opportunity is a paid, ten-week program starting around June 1, 2010. For more information about the opportunities within the Demographic Directorate, please contact Bethany DeSalvo.
