CPP AFFILIATES IN THE NEWS
Daniel T. Lichter, Ferris Family Professor; Director, Bronfenbrenner Life Course Center; and CPP Development Core Director is a President-elect candidate of the Population Association of America (PAA). The CPP wishes Dan good luck in the upcoming May 2010 election!

Parfait Eloundou-Enyegue, Associate Professor of Development Sociology and CPP affiliate, has recently received a three-year renewal of a grant from the Hewlett Foundation, to expand and improve demographic research, training, and policy outreach in sub-Saharan Africa. These various activities will also benefit from a related collaborative grant at the International Union for the Scientific Study of Population (IUSSP). Details about project activities and student opportunities will soon be available online.

CALL FOR PAPERS
Call for Papers: Supplement on Data Systems and Social Determinants of Health. Public Health Reports (PHR) is inviting papers for a Supplement on Social Determinants of Health and Data Systems. The Guest Editors for this Supplement are Drs. Kathleen McDavid Harrison and Hazel D. Dean. The Editors seek manuscripts that advance the scientific knowledge and public health research, practice, and policy on data systems related to addressing social determinants of health (SDH). Manuscripts may be analytic or descriptive in format and may propose models for new/enhanced data systems, evaluate existing data systems, or use data from current systems to illustrate how gaps can be addressed. Deadline for submission: June 1, 2010. The anticipated publication date for the PHR Supplement is Fall 2011

Call for Nominations: Garfield Economic Impact Award. Research!America is proud to announce a call for nominations for the ninth annual Garfield Economic Impact Award. The award annually recognizes outstanding research demonstrating how medical and health research impacts the economy. The Award Committee will consider nominations received by June 4, 2010.

FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES
NIFA AFRI Requests for Applications. AFRI will solicit its core program through seven separate RFAs. Challenge Areas: Childhood Obesity Prevention, Climate Change, Food Safety, Global Food Security, and Sustainable Bioenergy. Applicants are encouraged to review each RFA to explore all the opportunities available to them. Application deadlines differ depending on RFA.

National Campaign to Prevent Teen and Unplanned Pregnancy RFA. The National Campaign to Prevent Teen and Unplanned Pregnancy is seeking proposals to analyze newly available data on knowledge, attitudes, beliefs and behavior related to sexual activity and contraception among unmarried young adults—both male and female. Letters of Intent are due April 12, 2010 and full proposals are due April 19, 2010.

CPP STUDENT SECTION
Opportunities
New CPP Demography Minor
The CPP offers a campus-wide minor in Demography that is open to Ph.D. students in all social science graduate fields (including Statistics). Students who elect to minor in demography must have a member of their special committee representing the minor field of demography. This cannot be their advisor who represents the major field. We recommend that they examine the list of CPP faculty affiliates to identify appropriate persons, so you may be contacted by students to serve in that capacity. Students interested in signing up for the minor should contact Ms. Geysa Smiljanic. David Brown is the minor field’s director.

Fall 2010 Pro-Seminar
The pro-seminar DSoc/PAM 6720 (demography pro-seminar) was introduced Fall 2009, and will be offered each Fall. The pro-seminar is designed for second year graduate students, but students at any stage in their training are welcome. Please give the seminar careful consideration for next fall. It will be offered on Mondays at 10:10am-1:10pm in room 32 Warren Hall.

Funding Opportunities
OPRE Funding Announcement. Funds for Child Care Research Scholars grants are available to support dissertation research on child care policy issues in partnership with State Child Care and Development Fund (CCDF) lead agencies. Funding is dependent on availability and government interest. Application deadline: May 3, 2010.

Employment
Fertility and Empowerment Post-Doctoral Fellow. ICRW is offering a post-doctoral fellowship for a social scientist with gender and population expertise at its Washington, D.C. office. This fellowship is geared toward early career Ph.D. professionals who would like to conduct research within an action research organization and network with a wide range of experts in gender and population in resource-poor settings. Screening of applicants will continue until the position is filled.

Postdoctoral Research Associate, CU Boulder. The Institute of Behavioral Science (IBS) and the Department of Sociology at the University of Colorado Boulder seek a Postdoctoral Research Associate for a two-year position that can begin as early as August 15, 2010. Screening will begin April 15, 2010 and will continue until position is filled.

Postdoctoral Research Associate, Minnesota Population Center. The Minnesota Population Center has an opening for a post-doctoral researcher to play an important role in the improvement and expansion of internal U.S. Census Bureau data files. The successful candidate would begin in fall 2010. MPC will begin reviewing applications immediately.

Postdoctoral Fellow, Central European University (Budapest). The Department of Sociology and Social Anthropology at CEU invites applications for a Postdoctoral Fellow with research expertise in transnational migration. Of particular interest to the Department would be a candidate who is able to study transnational migration in its relation to urban spaces and to broader social, economic and political structures and processes. Start date August 2010. Review of applications begins May 8 2010 and will continue until position is filled.

Demographic Directorate 2010 Summer Internship Program. The Demographic Directorate of the United States Census Bureau is currently accepting applications for the 2010 Summer Internship Program. This opportunity is a paid, ten-week program starting around June 1, 2010. For more information about the opportunities within the Demographic Directorate, please contact Bethany DeSalvo.
