PAA Workshops

Wisconsin Longitudinal Study at PAA. The Wisconsin Longitudinal Study (WLS) is hosting a free training workshop for anyone who wants to learn more about the data. If you would like to attend, please make your travel plans to arrive by 3pm on Wednesday, March 30th. We will meet from 3-5pm in Tyler on the Mezzanine Level.

PAA Career Mentoring Lunch. Thursday, March 31, 2011, 12:30-2:00pm, Marriott Wardman Park Hotel. Professional networking opportunities for advanced graduate students, new PhDs, post-docs, junior faculty members or professionals. Lunch groupings will be small (approximately 4-5 people per table) and based on common interests and a desire to create linkages across institutions. Registration forms for the first-come, first-served luncheon are available with registration materials for the annual meeting, www.popassoc.org. Individuals interested in serving as mentors for the luncheon should contact Judith Seltzer, California Center for Population Research, UCLA at seltzerj@ucla.edu.

CALL FOR PAPERS
Call for Papers: The Essential Principles of Small- and Mid-Scale Food Value Chain Development. JAFSCD invites researchers, ag/food system development professionals, and others to submit applied research papers, critical reflection essays, commentaries, and other manuscripts that provide critical insights into small- and mid-scale food value chain development. Deadline: February 15, 2011.

NHANES-Questionnaire Development. The National Center for Health Statistics/CDC (NCHS) will consider adding new or revised questionnaire material, laboratory assessments, and examination components to the 2013-14 National Health and Nutrition Examination Survey (NHANES) survey. There are two stages to the NHANES proposal process. First, proposers should submit a letter of intent describing the proposed NHANES project. NHANES staff will review the letters of intent. If the proposed survey content seems appropriate for NHANES, then staff from our division will ask proposers for a full research proposal. There are separate deadlines, for letters of intent, for each of the three basic survey areas - the examination, laboratory assessments and questionnaires items. Examination component deadline: February 28, 2011; questionnaire content deadline: April 15, 2011; and laboratory content deadline: June 1, 2011.

Call for Papers: Food System Planning Theory and Practice. JAFSCD invites researchers, ag/food system development professionals, and others to submit applied research papers, critical reflection essays,
FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

ISS Small Grant Program. The ISS small grant program is designed to assist Cornell’s tenure-track and tenured faculty working within the social sciences. Application deadline: February 9, 2011.

Mario Einaudi Center’s Biannual Seed Grant Competition. The Einaudi Center’s biannual seed grant program is designed to advance international studies at Cornell. Tenured and tenure-track Cornell faculty are eligible to apply for these grants, as are Programs and Centers within the university, irrespective of their college or school of origin. Application deadline: February 28, 2011.

U.S. Department of Labor 2011 Scholars Program. On behalf of the U.S. Department of Labor, Mathematica Policy Research is pleased to announce a competition to fund one or two highly qualified researchers to carry out research projects that are relevant to the Department’s policymaking. Proposed projects should contribute to the Department’s mission of fostering, promoting, and developing the well-being of wage earners, retirees, and job seekers. Interested postdoctoral associates and junior researchers are strongly encouraged to apply for this opportunity. Application deadline: February 28, 2011.

Research Grant: Childhood Hunger. The Research Program on Childhood Hunger at the University of Kentucky Center for Poverty Research (UKCPR) will competitively award grants to qualified individuals and institutions to provide rigorous research that expands our understanding of hunger among children in the United States and of the attendant policy implications. Total anticipated funding is four large grants of $500,000 each and six small grants of $75,000 each. Application deadline: March 10, 2011.

Translational Research Institute on Pain in Later Life (TRIPLL) Pilot Study Program. The Cornell-Columbia Edward R. Roybal Center for Translational Research on Aging is pleased to announce its newly restructured Pilot Study Grant Program. The Program emphasizes investigator development and mentorship, offering grantees unique opportunities to build research across disciplines, institutions and settings. The Cornell Roybal Center maintains a research-ready network of community partners in New York City who have an interest in collaborating with research on aging and pain. To find out more information and how to apply for funding, please visit the TRIPLL website, or email Elaine Wethington, Director of the Pilot Studies program.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Postdoctoral Associates and Visiting Scholars, Stockholm University. Stockholm University is providing funds for increased internationalization, money for postdocs as well as visiting researchers. The initial deadline is February 1 to the social science faculty who will prepare selections to forward to the chancellor by February 22. The applications require a CV, a short justification of the person’s candidacy (no more than 4 pages single-spaced), a short description of what the person would do at SUDA, what salary support would be required, and the proposed time of the visit. For more information, contact Elizabeth Thomson.

Survey Research Director, Columbia University. The Survey Research Director will have responsibility for assisting in the oversight of research activities related to the Robin Hood Foundation funded project “A Robin Hood Poverty Standard”. The person in this position will work closely with the Principal Investigator and senior investigator at the Columbia Population Research Center, in the design and implementation of in-person, phone, and internet surveys. This is a two-year, grant-funded position. Appointment renewal is contingent upon funding. Interested applicants can send a CV and resume to M.K. Babcock at mkb2109@columbia.edu.
Senior/Research Associates, MDRC. MDRC has openings for three PhD-level researchers in our policy area on Family Well-being and Children’s Development. MDRC expects to hire a Senior Research Associate and a Research Associate to play leadership roles in designing and conducting impact evaluations of interventions to improve outcomes for low-income families and children. MDRC anticipates that for both of the impact positions, candidates will be highly trained in quantitative evaluation methods. MDRC’s implementation research draws on a combination of qualitative and quantitative methods and is increasingly grounded in the growing literature in implementation science as applied to social programs. The implementation research position could be filled by a Masters' level or a PhD level candidate.

Sociologist/Demographer, RAND. RAND’s Labor and Population Division is seeking mid-level and senior-level researchers to conduct high-quality, cutting-edge social demographic research as part of the RAND Population Research Center (PRC). For more information, contact Arie Kapteyn, the Director of RAND Labor and Population.

Population Affairs Officer, United Nations. This position (17229) is located in the Fertility and Family Planning Section of the Demographic Analysis Branch of the Population Division in the Department of Economic and Social Affairs (DESA). The incumbent’s work is focused on the analysis and monitoring of fertility and family planning trends, including the analysis of the impact of social and economic factors on fertility and family planning, and the modeling of fertility patterns. Application deadline: February 12, 2011.

Chief of the Demographic Analysis Branch, United Nations. The position (16550) is located in the Demographic Analysis Branch of the Population Division in the Department of Economic and Social Affairs. The incumbent works under the supervision of the Director of the Population Division and assists the Director in implementing the work programme of the Demographic Analysis Branch, which comprises the Fertility and Family Planning Section, the Mortality Section and the Migration Section. Application deadline: March 5, 2011.

Chief of the Population and Development Branch, United Nations. The position (16558) is located in the Population Studies Branch of the Population Division in the Department of Economic and Social Affairs. The incumbent works under the supervision of the Director of the Population Division and assists the Director in implementing the work programme of the Population Studies Branch, which comprises the Population Estimates and Projections Section, the Population and Development Section and the Population Policy Section. Application deadline: March 5, 2011.

Post Doctoral Research Associate, Princeton University. The Office of Population Research at Princeton University is seeking a postdoctoral researcher to work on a project that examines the biological pathways linking social and economic factors to health among older cohorts in Taiwan. The candidate should have strong methodological skills and experience in working with large survey data sets. Appointment is for one year, with possible renewal, to begin as early as July 2011. Ph.D. in related discipline required. Application deadline: March 15, 2011.

General Opportunities
INFO 7470, Social and Economic Data. If you are considering doing work in the Cornell Census Research Data Center, faculty and graduate students may be interested in INFO 7470, Social and Economic Data—a course designed to train Ph.D. students in the effective use of RDC data. INFO 7470 is being offered this semester on Tuesdays at 4:00-6:30pm in Ives 109. The course format is distance learning, and there will be participants from Census Research Data Centers in Atlanta (Georgia and Georgia State), Boston (Clark), Maryland (Joint Program on Survey Methodology), Minnesota (UMN Pop Center), UC Berkeley, and UCLA.
Employment/Funding Opportunities

CISER Help Desk Consultant. CISER is currently seeking graduate students with strong statistical software and data analysis experience to help staff our computing consulting helpdesk locations at Mann Library and 391 Pine Tree Road (CISER). The expected pay range for this position is between $14.00 and $16.00 per hour.

CISER Statistical Computing Documentation Developer. CISER is seeking a graduate student with solid English-language technical writing skills and considerable familiarity with data analysis software (such as SAS, Stata, SPSS, Atlas.ti and/or R) and, preferably, the CISER research computing system, to revamp documentation related to these resources on the CISER web site. The expected pay range for this position is between $14.00 and $16.00 per hour.

Demographic Directorate, 2011 Summer Internship Program. The Demographic Directorate of the United States Census Bureau is currently accepting applications for the 2011 Summer Internship Program. This opportunity is a paid, ten-week program starting in June 2011. For more information about the Demographic Directorate summer internship program, please e-mail Bethany DeSalvo.

National Pre-Doctoral Mentoring Program. The National Mentoring and Training Program of the Center for Population Research in LGBT Health at The Fenway Institute is seeking applications for its Pre-Doctoral Mentoring Program, open to currently enrolled doctoral and advanced Masters’ students. The program connects trainees with expert faculty mentors in LGBT health research from Center’s national network of participating scientists. Mentors are closely matched to students’ research interests and assist students who are developing or working on a research project in the study of LGBT health or same-sex families/households. An ideal candidate will have an interest in working with a mentor to better incorporate population health research methods and/or concerns in their projects. Applications deadline: February 15, 2011.

REU Site Summer Institute 2011: Immigration, Geography, and Race/Ethnicity in the United States. The Population Research Center at The University of Texas at Austin, in collaboration with the Department of Sociology, hosts the Research Experience for Undergraduates (REU) program. This eight-week summer program, which is funded by a grant from the National Science Foundation, offers eight very selective upper-division undergraduate students the opportunity to study social demography through course work and a mentored research experience with senior PRC graduate students. The program pays for tuition, room and board, and computer expenses. Students also receive a stipend for participation in the program. Application deadline: February 21, 2011.

Hewlett Foundation/IIE Dissertation Fellowship. The Institute of International Education (IIE) is now accepting applications for the Dissertation Fellowship in Population, Reproductive Health, and Economic Development. Sponsored by The William and Flora Hewlett Foundation, the fellowship awards up to $20,000 per year for work and research on the dissertation. Applicants should currently enrolled in Ph.D. programs in either sub-Saharan Africa, the United States or Canada, and should have completed their coursework by the start of the fellowship. Students in economics, economic demography, geography, and epidemiology are especially encouraged to apply. Application deadline: March 4, 2011.
