CALL FOR PAPERS

Call for papers: January 2012 American Economic Association Meeting. CSWEP will sponsor sessions at the January 2012 American Economic Association meetings in Chicago. We will be organizing three sessions on gender-related topics and three sessions on development. Accepted papers will be considered for publication in the Papers and Proceedings issue of the American Economic Review. Submission deadline: February 24, 2011.

Call for Papers: Mathematica Policy Research. Mathematica Policy Research is seeking papers for a systematic review of the research on programs that serve low-income fathers. The review is being conducted for the Office of Planning, Research and Evaluation (OPRE) within the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). Submissions should be e-mailed in MS Word or PDF to: SFER@mathematica-mpr.com. Submission deadline: February 25, 2011.

NHANES-Questionnaire Development. The National Center for Health Statistics/CDC (NCHS) will consider adding new or revised questionnaire material, laboratory assessments, and examination components to the 2013-14 National Health and Nutrition Examination Survey (NHANES) survey. There are two stages to the NHANES proposal process. First, proposers should submit a letter of intent describing the proposed NHANES project. NHANES staff will review the letters of intent. If the proposed survey content seems appropriate for NHANES, then staff from our division will ask proposers for a full research proposal. There are separate deadlines, for letters of intent, for each of the three basic survey areas - the examination, laboratory assessments and questionnaires items. Examination component deadline: February 28, 2011; questionnaire content deadline: April 15, 2011; and laboratory content deadline: June 1, 2011.

Call for Papers: IATUR Conference 2011. 33rd Conference of the International Association for Time Use Research, August 1-3, 2011. Manor Road Building and St Catherine’s College at the University of Oxford in the United Kingdom. Submission deadline: March 1, 2011.

Call for Papers: Food System Planning Theory and Practice. JAFSCD invites researchers, ag/food system development professionals, and others to submit applied research papers, critical reflection essays, commentaries, and other manuscripts that provide critical insights into food system challenges and opportunities. Submission deadline: April 20, 2011.

FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

U.S. Department of Labor 2011 Scholars Program. On behalf of the U.S. Department of Labor, Mathematica Policy Research is pleased to announce a competition to fund one or two highly qualified researchers to carry out research projects that are relevant to the Department’s policymaking. Proposed projects should contribute to the Department’s mission of fostering, promoting, and developing the well-being of wage earners, retirees, and job seekers. Interested postdoctoral associates and junior researchers are strongly encouraged to apply for this opportunity. Application deadline: February 28, 2011.

Research Grant: Childhood Hunger. The Research Program on Childhood Hunger at the University of Kentucky Center for Poverty Research (UKCPR) will competitively award grants to qualified individuals and institutions to provide rigorous research that expands our understanding of hunger among children in the United States and of the attendant policy implications. Total anticipated funding is four large grants of $500,000 each and six small grants of $75,000 each. Application deadline: March 10, 2011.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Survey Research Director, Columbia University. The Survey Research Director will have responsibility for assisting in the oversight of research activities related to the Robin Hood Foundation funded project “A Robin Hood Poverty Standard”. The person in this position will work closely with the Principal Investigator and senior investigator at the Columbia Population Research Center, in the design and implementation of in-person, phone, and internet surveys. This is a two-year, grant-funded position. Appointment renewal is contingent upon funding. Interested applicants can send a CV and resume to M.K. Babcock.

Senior/Research Associates, MDRC. MDRC has openings for three PhD-level researchers in our policy area on Family Well-being and Children’s Development. MDRC expects to hire a Senior Research Associate and a Research Associate to play leadership roles in designing and conducting impact evaluations of interventions to improve outcomes for low-income families and children. MDRC anticipates that for both of the impact positions, candidates will be highly trained in quantitative evaluation methods. MDRC’s implementation research draws on a combination of qualitative and quantitative methods and is increasingly grounded in the growing literature in implementation science as applied to social programs. The implementation research position could be filled by a Masters’ level or a PhD level candidate.

Sociologist/Demographer, RAND. RAND’s Labor and Population Division is seeking mid-level and senior-level researchers to conduct high-quality, cutting-edge social demographic research as part of the RAND Population Research Center (PRC). For more information, contact Arie Kapteyn, the Director of RAND Labor and Population.

Chief of the Demographic Analysis Branch, United Nations. The position (16550) is located in the Demographic Analysis Branch of the Population Division in the Department of Economic and Social Affairs. The incumbent works under the supervision of the Director of the Population Division and assists the Director in implementing the work programme of the Demographic Analysis Branch, which comprises the Fertility and Family Planning Section, the Mortality Section and the Migration Section. Application deadline: March 5, 2011.

Chief of the Population and Development Branch, United Nations. The position (16558) is located in the Population Studies Branch of the Population Division in the Department of Economic and Social Affairs. The incumbent works under the supervision of the Director of the Population Division and assists the Director in implementing the work programme of the Population Studies Branch, which comprises the Population Estimates and Projections Section, the Population and Development Section and the Population Policy Section. Application deadline: March 5, 2011.

Post Doctoral Research Associate, Princeton University. The Office of Population Research at Princeton University is seeking a postdoctoral researcher to work on a project that examines the biological pathways linking social and economic factors to health among older cohorts in Taiwan. The candidate should have strong methodological skills and experience in working with large survey data sets. Appointment is for one year, with possible renewal, to begin as early as July 2011. Ph.D. in related discipline required. Application deadline: March 15, 2011.

DHS Fellows Program, ICF Macro. ICF Macro is seeking applications from junior faculty in demography, public health, economics, sociology, geography, and other social sciences at universities in Ethiopia, Kenya, Malawi, Rwanda, Tanzania, and Uganda to participate in the 2011 Demographic and Health Surveys Short-term Fellows Program for Junior Faculty. Application deadline: March 15, 2011.

President and CEO of the Population Reference Bureau. Reporting to the Board of Trustees, the president and CEO has ultimate responsibility and accountability for management of the strategic, programmatic, and financial operations of the organization. If interested, contact: Mary Tydings and Jamie Hechinger, Russell Reynolds Associates, 1701 Pennsylvania Ave., NW, Suite 400, Washington, DC 20006-5805. Tel: +1-202-628-2150; direct: +1-202-654-7800; fax: +1-202-331-9348.

CPP STUDENT SECTION

REU Site Summer Institute 2011: Immigration, Geography, and Race/Ethnicity in the United States. The Population Research Center at The University of Texas at Austin, in collaboration with the Department of Sociology, hosts the Research Experience for Undergraduates (REU) program. This eight-week summer program, which is funded by a grant from the National Science Foundation, offers eight very selective upper-division undergraduate students the opportunity to study social demography through course work and a mentored research experience with senior PRC graduate students. The program pays for tuition, room and board, and computer expenses. Students also receive a stipend for participation in the program. Application deadline: February 21, 2011.

Hewlett Foundation/IIE Dissertation Fellowship. The Institute of International Education (IIE) is now accepting applications for the Dissertation Fellowship in Population, Reproductive Health, and Economic Development.
Sponsored by The William and Flora Hewlett Foundation, the fellowship awards up to $20,000 per year for work and research on the dissertation. Applicants should be currently enrolled in Ph.D. programs in either sub-Saharan Africa, the United States or Canada, and should have completed their coursework by the start of the fellowship. Students in economics, economic demography, geography, and epidemiology are especially encouraged to apply. Application deadline: March 4, 2011.
