CALL FOR PAPERS

Call for Papers: Urbanisation, Internal Migrations and Demographic Behaviour. The 2011 Chaire Quetelet will be devoted to the urban phenomenon and trends, to internal migrations and the different patterns they have, but also on the role of urbanisation and migration in changes of demographic behaviours, and generally in modifying social and demographic composition of urban, periurban and rural areas. Conference will be held November 16-18, 2011, Louvain-la-Neuve, Belgium. Submission deadline: May 20, 2011.

Call for Papers: Teaching Policy Analysis and Public Management in Today’s Classroom (Syllabi, Materials, Technology, and Cross-National Settings). The Association for Public Policy Analysis and Management (APPAM), in association with the University of Maryland School of Public Policy (UMD), plans to hold a one-day workshop on teaching methods on Wednesday, November 2, 2011 (day prior to APPAM’s Fall Meeting). Abstracts should be no longer than 500 words accompanied by relevant syllabi and teaching materials.
Submit abstracts by e-mail with supporting documentation to: Teyanna Munyan, Office of Professor Douglas J. Besharov, University of Maryland School of Public Policy, at tmunyan@umd.edu and to Professor Besharov, at besharob@umd.edu. Abstract submissions are due May 31, 2011.

Call for Papers – Research Committee on Social Stratification and Mobility (RC28). The University of Iowa invites abstract submissions for the 2011 Summer Meeting of the Research Committee on Social Stratification and Mobility of the International Sociological Association (RC28). The conference will be held in Iowa City, Iowa, USA, from August 8-12, 2011. The theme of the conference is “Opportunity, Meritocracy, and Changing Patterns of Social Inequality.” We are interested in all topics relevant to social stratification and mobility. Submission deadline: June 15, 2011.

Call for Proposals: International Conferences on Public Policy and Management. The Association for Public Policy Analysis and Management (APPAM) and the University of Maryland School of Public Policy (UMD) invite proposals to host one of three independent international public policy and management conferences in calendar years 2012, 2013, and 2014. Proposals are due no later than September 10, 2011.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Research and Policy Analyst, University of Virginia. The Weldon Cooper Center for Public Service at the University of Virginia is seeking qualified applicants for the position Research and Policy Analyst (#0607721). This position requires a graduate degree in demography, sociology, economics, geography, statistics, public policy, or related fields. Proficiency in SAS, SPSS or STATA and in GIS is required, as are excellent oral and written communication skills and commitment to work in a team-focused environment on population research in service to the Commonwealth of Virginia. Application deadline: open until filled.

Senior Lecturer/Associate Professor, Wits University, South Africa. The School of Public Health, University of Witwatersrand, seeks to appoint a researcher with a commitment to capacity development in Africa to support its PhD program. Applicants must have a broad knowledge of public health challenges facing Africa. For more information, contact Kathy Kahn. Application deadline: May 20, 2011.

Postdoctoral Research Fellowships, ISSR, The University of Queensland, Australia. The Institute for Social Science Research (ISSR) invites applications for a number of Postdoctoral Research Fellowships in 2012, to be awarded to early career researchers wishing to conduct full-time research. To be eligible, an applicant must not have had more than five years full-time professional research experience or equivalent part-time experience since the award of a PhD, as at 30 June 2011. Application deadline: June 20, 2011.

Demography & Economics of Aging Postdoctoral Fellowship. With support from the National Institute of Aging (P30 AG012857), the Center on the Demography and Economics of Aging at NORC at University of Chicago offers two post-doctoral fellowships. The goal of these post-doctoral fellowships is to train recent doctoral recipients interested in the demographic and economic analysis of aging through the development of basic methodological tools, applied research, policy-making and analysis, and professional development. Candidates must be interested in demography or the economics of aging and must have a PhD or equivalent graduate degree. Fellowships are restricted to U.S. citizens and permanent residents. For more information, please contact Sara Leitsch at (773) 256-6319. Application deadline: July 1, 2011.

CPP STUDENT OPPORTUNITIES

PhD Grants at INED (France). Each year INED (the French National Institute for Demographic Studies) hosts and provides funding to a few PhD students who are just entering the PhD dissertation-writing stage. PhD candidates benefit from the scientific environment of the institute and have access to INED resources (such as CORNELL POPULATION PROGRAM documentation, information technology, methodology, and surveys) and are involved in the research activities of the research group or division that hosts them. One senior INED researcher acts as a supervisor in addition to the student's supervisor at his or her own university. Because no formal classes or courses are offered at INED the student must have completed all required coursework and be in the first or second year of the dissertation stage. Application deadline: June 17, 2011.
