CALL FOR PAPERS

Call for Papers – Research Committee on Social Stratification and Mobility (RC28). The University of Iowa invites abstract submissions for the 2011 Summer Meeting of the Research Committee on Social Stratification and Mobility of the International Sociological Association (RC28). The conference will be held in Iowa City, Iowa, USA, from August 8-12, 2011. The theme of the conference is “Opportunity, Meritocracy, and Changing Patterns of Social Inequality.” We are interested in all topics relevant to social stratification and mobility. Submission deadline: June 15, 2011.
CORNELL POPULATION PROGRAM

Call for Papers: CUPC-NCAR Workshop on Migration, Urbanization and Climate Change. The University of Colorado at Boulder's Population Center (CUPC) and the National Center for Atmospheric Research (NCAR) Resilient and Sustainable Cities (RS-Cities) Project announce a workshop to critically explore the science of environmental factors within human migration decision-making, particularly as related to urbanization processes and climate change. Submission deadline: June 15, 2011.

Call for Papers and Posters: 2011 Census Research Data Center Annual Research Conference. The Minnesota Census Research Data Center (MnRDC) welcomes paper and poster proposals for the 2011 Census Research Data Center Annual Research Conference (September 15-16, 2011). We welcome research carried out in Census Bureau RDCs, as well as health research from the NCHS and AHRQ RDCs. We encourage submissions from faculty, graduate students and research staff at Universities and government agencies. Travel stipends will be available for graduate students. Submission deadline: June 17, 2011.

Call for Proposals: International Conferences on Public Policy and Management. The Association for Public Policy Analysis and Management (APPAM) and the University of Maryland’s School of Public Policy (UMD) invite proposals to host one of three independent international public policy and management conferences in calendar years 2012, 2013, and 2014. Submission deadline: September 10, 2011.

FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

ISS Small Grant Program. The ISS small grant program is designed to assist Cornell's tenure-track and tenured faculty working within the social sciences. We are particularly interested in providing funding for: (1) interdisciplinary social science research, (2) interdisciplinary conference support, (3) research led by junior faculty members, (4) projects that will subsequently seek external funding, and/or (5) activities that will lead to ISS theme project proposals. Application deadline: September 7, 2011.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Research and Policy Analyst, University of Virginia. The Weldon Cooper Center for Public Service at the University of Virginia is seeking qualified applicants for the position Research and Policy Analyst (#0607721). This position requires a graduate degree in demography, sociology, economics, geography, statistics, public policy, or related fields. Proficiency in SAS, SPSS or STATA and in GIS is required, as are excellent oral and written communication skills and commitment to work in a team-focused environment on population research in service to the Commonwealth of Virginia. Application deadline: open until filled.

Post-doctoral fellowship in Welfare Research, Umeå University. Welfare research at the Department of Sociology was recently appointed as one of the strong research environments at Umeå University. We now intend to strengthen our internationally leading research environment with at least one Post-doctoral fellow in the field. The employment as Post-doctoral fellow is limited to two years. We expect the holder of a Post-doctoral fellowship to conduct research within the strong research environment “Welfare research” (see the attached research program). The employment may include teaching, but to a maximum of 20% of the working time. Application deadline: June 17, 2011.

Postdoctoral Research Fellowships, ISSR, The University of Queensland, Australia. The Institute for Social Science Research (ISSR) invites applications for a number of Postdoctoral Research Fellowships in 2012, to be awarded to early career researchers wishing to conduct full-time research. To be eligible, an applicant must not have had more than five years full-time professional research experience or equivalent part-time experience since the award of a PhD, as at 30 June 2011. Application deadline: June 20, 2011.

Demography & Economics of Aging Postdoctoral Fellowship. With support from the National Institute of Aging (P30 AG012857), the Center on the Demography and Economics of Aging at NORC at University of Chicago offers two post-doctoral fellowships. The goal of these post-doctoral fellowships is to train recent doctoral recipients interested in the demographic and economic analysis of aging through the development of basic methodological tools, applied research, policy-making and analysis, and professional development. Candidates must be interested in demography or the economics of aging and must have a PhD or equivalent graduate degree. Fellowships are restricted to U.S. citizens and permanent residents. For more information, please contact Sara Leitsch at (773) 256-6319. Application deadline: July 1, 2011.

Assistant Professor of Sociology of Food Systems, Cornell University. The Department of Development Sociology in the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences at Cornell University is seeking applicants for a tenure-track appointment in Sociology of Food Systems (#14941). Appointment will be on an academic year (9-mo) basis. This position is part of an interdisciplinary cluster hire that also includes a position in Sustainable Cropping and Food Systems in the Department of Crop and Soil Sciences. Reviews will start after July 15, 2011 and continue until the deadline October 1, 2011.

Postdoctoral Associate, Human Development, Cornell University. The Laboratory for Rational Decision Making, in the Department of Human Development is seeking a Postdoctoral Associate (#15068). The appointment is for one year, with potential for reappointment. This individual will have the opportunity to work with and assist Dr. Valerie Reyna in research on neuroscience of judgment and decision making, numeracy and quantitative reasoning, risk taking (e.g., in adolescence), medical decision making, false memory, and neurocognitive impairment.

CPP STUDENT OPPORTUNITIES

PhD Grants at INED (France). Each year INED (the French National Institute for Demographic Studies) hosts and provides funding to a few PhD students who are just entering the PhD dissertation-writing stage. PhD candidates benefit from the scientific environment of the institute and have access to INED resources (such as documentation, information technology, methodology, and surveys) and are involved in the research activities of the research group or division that hosts them. One senior INED researcher acts as a supervisor in addition to the student's supervisor at his or her own university. Because no formal classes or courses are offered at INED the student must have completed all required coursework and be in the first or second year of the dissertation stage. Application deadline: June 17, 2011.

Fall 2011 information sessions on grants and fellowships for international studies research. The fall series includes an overview of funding opportunities for graduate international research, advice for proposal writing, and special sessions for the Fulbright U.S. Student and Fulbright-Hays Programs, the Foreign Language and Area Studies Fellowships (FLAS), and the Einaudi Center Travel Grants. There is also a special session on funding opportunities for graduate international students.
