PAA ELECTION
Daniel T. Lichter, Ferris Family Professor; Director, Bronfenbrenner Life Course Center; and CPP Development Core Director was nominated as one of the two candidates to run for President of the Population Association of America (PAA). The PAA 2010 online election is now OPEN at https://eballot4.votenet.com/paa. You will need your PAA member login and password to access the ballot. Click here if you don’t know your login and password. Online voting will be open through August 10, 2010.
Cornell Population Program

CONFERENCES

Cornell Population Program Second Annual Encore Conference. October 1, 2010, Statler Hotel, Cornell University. The conference features encore sessions where CPP affiliated faculty and students reprise their off-campus paper or poster presentations for their on-campus colleagues. Event includes sessions, cocktail hour, and dinner for all CPP affiliates. Please contact David Brown to apply to present.

American Sociological Association (ASA) 2010 Conference. August 14-17, 2010 in Atlanta, GA. Population Section activities are concentrated on Monday and Tuesday, August 16-17.

WORKSHOPS

CPP Grant Training Workshop. September 24, 2010, 9:00am-5:00pm, 153 MVR Hall. The CPP will hold a one-day grant training workshop for interested CPP affiliates to learn how to write successful grants to federal agencies such as NIH and NSF. The workshop will provide advice about general topics such as developing budgets, human subjects, and the peer review process, as well as providing specific input on each participant’s individual research proposal. In preparation for the workshop, participants will write an R03-type proposal. These proposals are only 6 pages long (single-spaced). Each participant will be assigned a mentor who will read the proposal prior to the workshop and provide input. Because we will need to recruit appropriate mentors, participation in the workshop will be on an invited basis only. To apply for this workshop, please send a one paragraph abstract of your research idea by August 8, 2010 to Erin Oates. Questions can also be directed to Erin at 255-1960.

IPUMS databases at ASA 2010. The Minnesota Population Center (MPC) will host a FREE informational workshop on the Integrated Public Use Microdata Series (IPUMS) databases at the 2010 annual meeting of the American Sociological Association in Atlanta, GA. The workshop will provide an overview of the MPC databases and will focus on the use of IPUMS data in research. It will be held Monday, August 16, 2010 from 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. in Meeting Room 205 of the Hilton Atlanta.

GRANT OPPORTUNITIES

ISS Small Grant Program. The ISS small grant program is designed to assist Cornell’s tenure-track faculty working within the social sciences. Particular interest in providing funding for: (1) interdisciplinary social science research, (2) interdisciplinary conference support, (3) research led by junior faculty members, (4) projects that will subsequently seek external funding, and/or (5) activities that will lead to ISS theme project proposals. Fall 2010 ISS small grant deadline is September 8, 2010.

The Einaudi Center’s Seed Grant Program. The Einaudi Center’s biannual seed grant program is designed to advance international studies at Cornell. Tenured and tenure-track Cornell faculty are eligible to apply for these grants, as are Programs and Centers within the university, irrespective of their college or school of origin. Application deadline is September 15, 2010.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES
Assistant Director, Population Studies and Training Center (PSTC), Brown University. The Assistant Director (job number F01314) aids the Director and Associate Director in meeting the goals and objectives of the PSTC, a dynamic interdepartmental and interdisciplinary center, which coordinates research and training programs involving the activities of nearly 40 faculty and over 50 graduate students with a substantial annual operating budget and external award portfolio. Open until filled.

Wittgenstein Centre for Demography and Global Human Capital. Applications are invited for up to 10 new appointments (pre-doc, post-doc to senior scientist) as part of launching the new "Wittgenstein Centre for Demography and Global Human Capital" which is being made possible by the substantial research funding associated with the Wittgenstein Prize. The new centre will rest on three pillars (the Vienna Institute of Demography, the World Population Program of IIASA and the WU - Vienna University of Economics). The focus of the new Centre is global and the working language is English. To apply, please send your CV, personal statement as well as names and contact details of two referees to Heike Barakat. The deadline for a first round of recruiting is August 25, 2010.

Assistant Professor of Demography, Bowling Green State University. The Department of Sociology invites applications for a tenure-track position in the area of demography starting in August 2011. The position will be filled at the beginning assistant professor level. Area of specialization within demography is open. BGSU has two federally-funded research centers: the Center for Family and Demographic Research and The National Center for Family & Marriage Research. The Sociology Department’s doctoral specializations are demography, family, social psychology, and criminology. Candidates must demonstrate excellence in research and a strong commitment to teaching at both the graduate and undergraduate levels. A Ph.D. in Sociology or related field is required at time of employment. Application deadline is September 15, 2010.
