EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Assistant Professor of Sociology, University of Massachusetts-Amherst. The Department of Sociology invites applications for an Assistant Professor Fall 2011 tenure-track position. The position is open area, although we seek to build strengths in social theory and global/transnational sociology. Applicants should have firm expectations of a completed Ph.D. by September 2011 and be eager to join an intellectually lively, diverse, growing department. Applications received before October 1, 2010 will receive full consideration.

Demography search, University at Albany, SUNY. The Department of Sociology at the University at Albany invites applications for a tenure track position to begin Fall 2011 (contingent on final budget approval), with competitive salary. Candidates are sought in either of the following two areas: (1) demography; rank open but with preference given to candidates at the Associate or Full level and who have experience obtaining external funding; (2) Our second priority is for a candidate at the Assistant Professor level who conducts qualitative and/or ethnographic research. Applications will be screened beginning October 1, 2010.

Vice President for Research—Population Action International. Population Action International is recruiting a person with strong management and research skills to lead the organization’s program on reproductive health and population policy. The candidate would lead the organization’s research department and direct its climate change program. To apply: email resume, cover letter and salary history to Rachael Murray Rakestraw at or fax
Archive Director, ICPSR, University of Michigan. The Inter-University Consortium for Political and Social Research (ICPSR), a center in the Institute for Social Research at the University of Michigan, is recruiting a senior social scientist to direct data archiving projects. We seek an experienced researcher to direct the Data Sharing for Demographic Research (DSDR) and National Addiction & HIV Data Archive Program (NAHDAP). To apply, please submit a letter of application, a CV, three letters of reference, and relevant writing samples to: George Alter, Acting Director, Inter-university Consortium for Political and Social Research, Institute for Social Research, P.O. Box 1248, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48106-1248. Screening of applications will begin immediately upon receipt and continue until the position is filled.

Assistant Professor of Sociology, McGill University. Applications are invited for a tenure-track Assistant Professor position, commencing August 1st, 2011. We are looking to expand our strength in the area of Population Dynamics. Within this substantive area, all research foci are of interest. But research with a focus on migration or aging is particularly welcome. Application deadline: October 25, 2010.

Assistant or Associate Professor of Demography, University of Western Ontario, (Department of Sociology). Applications are invited for a Probationary, tenure track position at the Assistant or Associate Professor level beginning 1 July 2011. The successful candidate must have expertise in the field of formal demography, the ability to teach graduate and undergraduate courses in Demographic Modeling and Methods as well as Quantitative Methods and Statistics, and a strong substantive research program that would contribute to the focus of the Population Studies program at Western in the areas of life course studies, longevity/mortality/health, family demography, or migration. Application deadline: November 1, 2010.

Assistant/Associate Professor, Department of Family & Consumer Sciences, California State University, Northridge. Earned doctorate required by August 24, 2011. Appropriate degrees for teaching in the consumer affairs area required. Expertise in family financial services/education desired. One degree in Family and Consumer Sciences or similar program highly requested. Candidates who incorporate cultural perspectives in teaching and research are encouraged to apply. Application deadline: November 30, 2010.
