Stanford Workshop in Formal Demography. December 15-17, 2010 at Stanford University. The Stanford Center for Population Research and the Center for the Demography and Economics of Health and Aging announce a workshop on Mortality Analysis and Forecasting. The broad goal is to demonstrate the importance of mathematical results and understanding for demography in a variety of substantive contexts.

CALL FOR PAPERS

Call for Proposals: CSWEP Sessions at the 2011 Eastern Economics Association Meetings. February 25 - 27, 2011 at New York City: Sheraton Hotel and Towers. CSWEP will sponsor sessions at the EEA 2011 Annual Meeting. Please note that your CSWEP abstract submission is distinct from submissions in response to the EEA general call for papers. The organizer should prepare a proposal for a panel (including chair and participants) or session (including chair, abstracts, and discussants) and submit to Dr. Susan L. Averett by e-mail before October 15, 2010.

Call for Proposals: 2011 Welfare Research and Evaluation Conference. The 14th Annual Welfare Research and Evaluation Conference will be held June 1 – 3, 2011 in Washington, DC. The conference will center on the Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF) program, with significant attention also provided to related programs, policies, and services that support low-income and vulnerable families on the path to economic self-sufficiency. Proposal deadline October 29, 2010.

Call for Papers: PopPov Network Conference. The fifth annual PopPov Network conference on population, reproductive health and economic development will take place in Marseille, France, January 19-21, 2011. The conference scientific program steering committee invites paper submissions that address important issues at the intersection of population, reproductive health and economic prosperity. Abstract deadline: November 12, 2010.

FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

CPP STUDENT SECTION

NSF Graduate Research Fellowship Program. The purpose of the NSF Graduate Research Fellowship Program (GRFP) is to help ensure the vitality and diversity of the scientific and engineering workforce in the United States. The program recognizes and supports outstanding graduate students who are pursuing research-based master's and doctoral degrees in fields within NSF's mission. The GRFP provides three years of support for the graduate education of individuals who have demonstrated their potential for significant achievements in science and engineering research. Proposal deadlines begin October 15th depending on area of study.

Cornell University-Postdoctoral Fellowship at the Institute for the Social Sciences ISS Immigration Theme Project. Post-doctoral research associates are sought for participation in an interdisciplinary project on Immigration:
Settlement, Integration, & Membership. Applications will be accepted for a one-year position, beginning approximately August 15, 2011. The project is led by an interdisciplinary team exploring two broad themes: immigrant settlement and integration, particularly in new receiving areas, and immigrant inclusion and membership. Applicants must have a Ph.D. by August 15, 2011; scholars who have completed their Ph.D.’s within the past five years will be considered. Application deadline: November 15, 2010.

Graduate Student Grants and Fellowships: Researching Opportunities Workshop. November 16, 2010, 3:00-4:30pm, Uris Library B05 Electronic Classroom. Trying to identify funding sources for research projects or dissertation research in the social sciences or humanities? Learn how to find opportunities offered by foundations and other granting organizations, research the grants themselves, and set up alerts that keep you informed of new opportunities.

Postdoctoral Fellowships, National Poverty Center. The Research and Training Program on Poverty and Public Policy provides under-represented scholars in the social sciences the opportunity to spend one to two years conducting research and pursuing extensive training at the Gerald R. Ford School of Public Policy. Application deadline: January 14, 2011.

Fred H. Bixby Fellowship Program. Through a generous grant from the Fred H. Bixby Foundation, the Population Council has created the Bixby Fellowship Program to expand opportunities for recently trained social scientists and biomedical researchers in the health and population fields. Bixby fellowships allow citizens of developing countries to work with experienced mentors in the Council’s international network of offices. Fellows work on projects in one of three program areas: Reproductive Health, HIV/AIDS, and Poverty, Gender and Youth. Application deadline: January 15, 2011.
