CALL FOR PAPERS
Call for Papers: PopPov Network Conference. The fifth annual PopPov Network conference on population, reproductive health and economic development will take place in Marseille, France, January 19-21, 2011. The conference scientific program steering committee invites paper submissions that address important issues at the intersection of population, reproductive health and economic prosperity. Abstract deadline: November 12, 2010.

Call for papers: 2nd Annual Integrating Genetics & Social Science (IGSS). With support from the NICHD and the PAA, the Institute of Behavioral Science and CU Population Center are hosting the 2nd annual conference Integrating Genetics and the Social Sciences. The goal of this conference is to showcase behavioral and molecular genetic studies that enhance demographic and social scientific inquiry or in some way integrate genetics and the social sciences. Deadline: January 15, 2011.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Cornell University-Postdoctoral Fellowship at the Institute for the Social Sciences ISS Immigration Theme Project. Post-doctoral research associates are sought for participation in an interdisciplinary project on Immigration: Settlement, Integration, & Membership. Applications will be accepted for a one-year position, beginning approximately August 15, 2011. The project is led by an interdisciplinary team exploring two broad themes: immigrant settlement and integration, particularly in new receiving areas, and immigrant inclusion and membership. Applicants must have a Ph.D. by August 15, 2011; scholars who have completed their Ph.D.’s within the past five years will be considered. Application deadline: November 15, 2010.

Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology and Latin American Studies Program, California State University, Los Angeles. Tenure-Track Assistant Professor with primary specialization in globalization, and secondary specializations in sociology of human rights or international law, with emphasis on Latin America. This joint position is two-thirds time in Sociology, one-third time in the interdisciplinary Latin American Studies program, and will involve teaching courses in both programs. The starting date is September 2011. Application deadline: November 15, 2010.

Assistant/Associate Professor, Department of Demography, University of Montreal, Canada. The Department of Demography is seeking applicants for a faculty opening in the area of migration, at either the assistant (tenure-track) or associate professor level. Application deadline: November 15, 2010.

Assistant/Associate Professor, Department of Family & Consumer Sciences, California State University, Northridge. Expertise in family financial services/education desired. One degree in Family and Consumer Sciences or similar program highly requested. Candidates who incorporate cultural perspectives in teaching and research are encouraged to apply. Application deadline: November 30, 2010.

Assistant Professor, Department of Consumer Science, University of Wisconsin-Madison. Requires Ph.D. in Consumer/Household/Family Economics, Consumer Science, Personal Finance, or related fields including but not limited to Economics, Business, or Public Policy. Specialization in area related to family economic wellbeing, consumer issues, financial management, financial security, or behavioral finance is preferred. Application deadline: December 3, 2010.

Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology, University of California, Irvine. As part of its continuing expansion, the UCI Sociology Department announces recruitment for one tenure-track position at the assistant professor level. We welcome applicants in all sub-fields. We seek candidates with a strong publication profile and a well-defined research agenda. Application deadline: December 15, 2010.

Assistant Professor, Human Development and Family Studies, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. The Department of Human and Community Development at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign is seeking a nine-month, full-time (50% teaching, 50% research), tenure-track Assistant Professor with a start date of August 16, 2011. We are seeking a family and/or developmental methodologist with a substantive research area related to child, adolescent or family studies. Candidates are required to have proficiency in the application of advanced multivariate statistics and methods, including multilevel and growth curve modeling techniques. Experience is desirable in the analysis of longitudinal data, dyadic data, intensive repeated measures data, and/or the integration of qualitative and quantitative methods. Application deadline: January 3, 2011.

Postdoctoral Fellowships, National Poverty Center. The Research and Training Program on Poverty and Public Policy provides under-represented scholars in the social sciences the opportunity to spend one to two years conducting research and pursuing extensive training at the Gerald R. Ford School of Public Policy. Application deadline: January 14, 2011.

Post Doctoral Research Associate, Princeton University. The Office of Population Research at Princeton University is seeking a postdoctoral researcher to work on a project that examines the biological pathways linking social and economic factors to health among older cohorts in Taiwan. The candidate should have strong methodological skills and experience in working with large survey data sets. Appointment is for one year, with possible renewal, to begin as early as July 2011. Ph.D. in related discipline required. Application deadline: March 15, 2011.

CPP STUDENT SECTION

NSF Graduate Research Fellowship Program. The purpose of the NSF Graduate Research Fellowship Program (GRFP) is to help ensure the vitality and diversity of the scientific and engineering workforce in the United States. The program recognizes and supports outstanding graduate students who are pursuing research-based master's and doctoral degrees in fields within NSF’s mission. The GRFP provides three years of support for the graduate education of individuals who have demonstrated their potential for significant achievements in science and engineering research. Proposal deadlines dependant on area of study.

Graduate Student Grants and Fellowships: Researching Opportunities Workshop. Trying to identify funding sources for research projects or dissertation research in the social sciences or humanities? Learn how to find opportunities offered by foundations and other granting organizations, research the grants themselves, and set up alerts that keep you informed of new opportunities. November 16, 2010, 3:00-4:30pm, Uris Library B05 Electronic Classroom.

Fred H. Bixby Fellowship Program. Through a generous grant from the Fred H. Bixby Foundation, the Population Council has created the Bixby Fellowship Program to expand opportunities for recently trained social scientists and biomedical researchers in the health and population fields. Bixby fellowships allow citizens of developing countries to work with experienced mentors in the Council’s international network of offices. Fellows work on projects in one of three program areas: Reproductive Health, HIV/AIDS, and Poverty, Gender and Youth. Application deadline: January 15, 2011.
