CONFERENCES

5th Annual PopPov Network Conference, January 19-21, 2011, Marseille, France. The 5th Annual PopPov Network Conference will focus on international population, reproductive health, and economic development.

2011 PAA Annual Meeting, March 31-April 2, 2011, Washington, DC. There will also be an Economic Demography Workshop from 1-6 pm on the afternoon of March 30.

WORKSHOPS

Association for Public Data Users Webinar, December 9, 2010, 3:00-4:00pm, "The Changing Landscape of Data for Health Services Research and Policy." The program will focus on availability of new data tools to access electronic health information supporting work in research and policy analysis.
Paul Voss Spatial Regression Modeling Workshop. The CPP Statistics Core is sponsoring a 5-day workshop by Paul Voss on Spatial Regression Modeling. The workshop will be held on campus from June 6 - June 10, 2011. Dr. Voss, currently at the UNC Odum Institute for Research in Social Science, is Professor Emeritus in the Department of Rural Sociology at the University of Wisconsin-Madison and a noted expert in spatial analysis and spatial regression. Due its length and relatively high cost, the CPP would like to get an estimate of workshop attendees as early as possible. The cost of this workshop to CPP affiliates is free. If you would like to register, please contact Carrie Chalmers by December 10, 2010.

Stanford Workshop in Formal Demography. December 15-17, 2010 at Stanford University. The Stanford Center for Population Research and the Center for the Demography and Economics of Health and Aging announce a workshop on Mortality Analysis and Forecasting. The broad goal is to demonstrate the importance of mathematical results and understanding for demography in a variety of substantive contexts.

42nd East-West Center Summer Seminar on Population. Workshops held during May/June 2011 in Honolulu, Hawaii. Specific dates and locations are: 1) Designing Fertility Analyses in the Context of Low Fertility (June 4-18); 2) Effective Responses to HIV in a Funding-Constrained Environment: Asia (May 28-June 18); and 3) Communicating with Policymakers about Population and Health (May 28-June 18). The deadline for applications is December 31, 2010.

CALL FOR PAPERS

Call for Papers: 2011 Western Economic Association Meetings. CSWEP will be sponsoring sessions at the 2011 Western Economic Association International (WEAI) meetings, to be held at the San Diego Marriott Hotel and Marina, San Diego, June 29-July 3, 2011. Deadline for submission of session proposals is January 14, 2011.

Call for papers: 2nd Annual Integrating Genetics & Social Science (IGSS). With support from the NICHD and the PAA, the Institute of Behavioral Science and CU Population Center are hosting the 2nd annual conference Integrating Genetics and the Social Sciences. The goal of this conference is to showcase behavioral and molecular genetic studies that enhance demographic and social scientific inquiry or in some way integrate genetics and the social sciences. Deadline: January 15, 2011.

NHANES-Questionnaire Development. The National Center for Health Statistics/CDC (NCHS) will consider adding new or revised questionnaire material, laboratory assessments, and examination components to the 2013-14 National Health and Nutrition Examination Survey (NHANES) survey. There are two stages to the NHANES proposal process. First, proposers should submit a letter of intent describing the proposed NHANES project.
EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Archiving Director at the University of Michigan, DSDR. The Inter-University Consortium for Political and Social Research (ICPSR), a center in the Institute for Social Research at the University of Michigan, is recruiting a senior social scientist to direct a data archiving project. Data Sharing for Demographic Research (DSDR) provides resources to demographic data producers and users with support from the Demographic and Behavioral Sciences Branch (DBSB) of the Eunice Kennedy Shriver National Institute of Child Health and Human Development (NICHD). Screening of applications will begin immediately upon receipt and continue until the position is filled.

Archiving Director at the University of Michigan, NAHDAP. The Inter-University Consortium for Political and Social Research (ICPSR), a center in the Institute for Social Research at the University of Michigan, is recruiting a senior social scientist to direct a data archiving project. National Addiction & HIV Data Archive Program (NAHDAP) acquires, preserves, and disseminates data relevant to drug addiction and HIV research with funding from the National Institute on Drug Abuse. This project is a set of public service activities that work with data producers and data users to document, archive and disseminate data for social science research. Screening of applications will begin immediately upon receipt and continue until the position is filled.

Assistant Professor, Department of Consumer Science, University of Wisconsin-Madison. Requires Ph.D. in Consumer/Household/Family Economics, Consumer Science, Personal Finance, or related fields including but not limited to Economics, Business, or Public Policy. Specialization in area related to family economic wellbeing, consumer issues, financial management, financial security, or behavioral finance is preferred. Application deadline: December 3, 2010.

Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology, University of California, Irvine. As part of its continuing expansion, the UCI Sociology Department announces recruitment for one tenure-track position at the assistant professor level. We welcome applicants in all sub-fields. We seek candidates with a strong publication profile and a well-defined research agenda. Application deadline: December 15, 2010.

Assistant Professor, Human Development and Family Studies, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. The Department of Human and Community Development at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign is seeking a nine-month, full-time (50% teaching, 50% research), tenure-track Assistant Professor with a start date of August 16, 2011. We are seeking a family and/or developmental methodologist with a substantive research area related to child, adolescent or family studies. Candidates are required to have proficiency in the application of advanced multivariate statistics and methods, including multilevel and growth curve modeling techniques. Experience is desirable in the analysis of longitudinal data, dyadic data, intensive repeated measures data, and/or the integration of qualitative and quantitative methods. Application deadline: January 3, 2011.

Postdoctoral Fellowships, National Poverty Center. The Research and Training Program on Poverty and Public Policy provides under-represented scholars in the social sciences the opportunity to spend one to two years conducting research and pursuing extensive training at the Gerald R. Ford School of Public Policy. Application deadline: January 14, 2011.
Post Doctoral Research Associate, Princeton University. The Office of Population Research at Princeton University is seeking a postdoctoral researcher to work on a project that examines the biological pathways linking social and economic factors to health among older cohorts in Taiwan. The candidate should have strong methodological skills and experience in working with large survey data sets. Appointment is for one year, with possible renewal, to begin as early as July 2011. Ph.D. in related discipline required. Application deadline: March 15, 2011.

CPP STUDENT SECTION

NSF Graduate Research Fellowship Program. The purpose of the NSF Graduate Research Fellowship Program (GRFP) is to help ensure the vitality and diversity of the scientific and engineering workforce in the United States. The program recognizes and supports outstanding graduate students who are pursuing research-based master's and doctoral degrees in fields within NSF's mission. The GRFP provides three years of support for the graduate education of individuals who have demonstrated their potential for significant achievements in science and engineering research. Proposal deadlines dependant on area of study.

Fred H. Bixby Fellowship Program. Through a generous grant from the Fred H. Bixby Foundation, the Population Council has created the Bixby Fellowship Program to expand opportunities for recently trained social scientists and biomedical researchers in the health and population fields. Bixby fellowships allow citizens of developing countries to work with experienced mentors in the Council's international network of offices. Fellows work on projects in one of three program areas: Reproductive Health, HIV/AIDS, and Poverty, Gender and Youth. Application deadline: January 15, 2011.
